Look out for the sleek tongued varments that tell you the Advance is not the best machine in the market. Those that tell you falsehoods are not worthy of being called by any other name. The ADVANCE is guaranteed to do more and better work than any other machine in the market, and is the only machine on the Coast that has NEVER been replaced by other machines. Other dealers have offered new machines for an ADVANCE that has been run two years and have given parties to understand they would give differences, but were told that the ADVANCE, after two years' run was still much better than old fogy machines if they were new. And if the ADVANCE engine is not the best traction engine why is it that I have sold TWELVE on the West Side, between Portland and Corvallis this year?

CHANGING THE RULES.

The Olympia Convention Is Not Running Smoothly.

MORNING SESSIONS TO BE HELD

Committee Work To Be Handled in the Afternoons and Evenings—A Number of Additional Propositions

OLYMPIA, W. T., July 12.—The convention met at 1:30, the president in the chair.

Prayer by Chaplain Thompson.

Roll call showed all present except Travis and Fay (on leave).

The records of Thursday were read and corrected (by striking out all the account of the proceedings in committee of the whole, which has no place in the records of the convention), and then approved.

Mr. Cosgrove asked that the records be made to show that the proposition by him yesterday was done by request of other persons. So ordered.

PETITIONS, ETC.

The president submitted a petition of F. G. Hendrick and 514 men and 414 women for woman suffrage, referred to the committee on elections, etc.

Mr. Dunbar presented a petition of William Milliken and others for constitutional prohibition, referred to the committee on miscellaneous subjects.

The president presented a communication which he had received by mail. It was entitled "A plan containing the elements and cardinal principles of state constitutional government," and signed Joseph Ramsey. It was referred to the committee on revision.

Mr. Burke presented a petition of D. D. Rhodes and others, of Shoalwater bay, asking that oyster cultivators be allowed to purchase not to exceed ten acres of tide land each at a price not to exceed $1.25 per acre; referred to the committee on state lands.

Joy presented a petition of William West and others over 21 years of age for woman suffrage; referred to the committee on elections.

COMMITTEE REPORTS, ETC.

Power from the committee on printing presented a majority report signed by himself and Joy, Ellis, Clothier and Dallam, on the proposition of W. D. Knight to do the public printing, recommending that it was inexpedient to make any change in public printer.

Mr. Suksdorf presented a minority report on the same subject signed by himself and Van Name, declaring it inexpedient to recommend either the acceptance or rejection of the offer, but that if anything is to be done it be done by calling for bids, and giving the work to the lowest bidder.

On motion of Griffitts, both reports and the whole subject matter were referred to the committee on judicial department.

Dunbar returned from the committee on state lands the proposition of Helman relative to the state's right of eminent domain in water frontage, suggesting that reference be made. That portion of the proposition relative to water frontage generally was sent to the committee on harbors, and the portion relative to withholding from sale to private individuals all such lands as are within two miles of any city, was sent to the committee on state lands.

MORE PROPOSITIONS.

Mr. Jones submitted a proposition prohibiting the legislature from granting divorces; referred to the committee on preamble and bill of rights.

Joy submitted a proposition that examinations shall be made of applicants for civil service [illegible] but that no religious test shall be established; referred to the committee on miscellaneous subjects.

Mr. Griffitts submitted a proposition that eight hours be a day's work in mines and all underground work. Also providing for an inspector of mines and that mine owners furnish all necessary means and appliances for protecting life and insuring the safety and health of miners. Both were referred to the committee on mines and mining.

Mr. Kinnear submitted a proposition to provide a home for disabled soldiers, sailors and marines of the rebellion and state militia, disabled in line of duty; referred to the committee on military and militia affairs.

Mr. Buchanan submitted a proposition making the supreme court to consist of one chief justice and two associate justices to hold office for six years and to be appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate. When the population of the state reaches 1,000,000 the legislature shall provide for an increase of the number to one chief and four associate justices to hold office for ten years; referred to the committee on judicial department.

Mr. [illegible] proposition declaring it a [illegible] for the president or officer of a bank to receive deposits or create debts after knowledge of insolvency or failing circumstances, and making [illegible] personally liable for such losses, was referred to the committee on corporations.

Eshelman presented a resolution declaring that it is competent for this convention to submit separate propositions to the people along with the constitution which it shall frame, which shall become parts of the constitution if approved by a vote of the people.

Mr. Hill submitted a proposition that the legislature compel mining, manufacturing and construction companies to make such arrangement of machinery as is needful for the protection of life; referred to the committee on corporations.

Mr. Prosser presented a proposition to allow women to exercise school suffrage and hold school offices; referred to the committee on elections. Also a proposition declaring all sections numbered 16 and 36 to be school lands which shall not be sold but leased for the benefit of the school fund [illegible] referred to the committee on state lands.

Mr. Newt[illegible] proposed to have the superintendent [illegible] mining [illegible] the state [illegible] referred to the committee on mines.

Mr. Hicks wished to have the legislature prohibited from enacting any special or private laws; referred to the committee [illegible]. Also that school lands may be sold and the proceeds held in trust forever, the income only to be used for school purposes, not more than one-fourth of any section to be sold within five years, one-half within ten years and three-fourths within fifteen years, and that at each sale the most valuable portions of such sections shall be [illegible] referred to the committee on state lands.

Mr. Weir's proposition declaring that the state owns all state lands by power of its sovereign authority, that they should be vested in a board of land commissioners [illegible]

THE [illegible]

Mr. S[illegible] [illegible] propositions [illegible] appropriate committee. He said that rule 4 required all such articles and propositions when referred, to be printed and laid on the members' tables. He thought this was [illegible] [illegible]

Dr. Miner asked [illegible] the point of order that [illegible] is not [illegible] printed.

Mr. S[illegible] replied that such a course would [illegible] accomplish what he [illegible] would still [illegible] the committee [illegible] three days [illegible] to report [illegible]

Mr. Reed [illegible] [illegible]

Mr. Buchanan gave notice under rule 47 to take the same [illegible] that such a motion [illegible] one day's notice, he gave the notice accordingly.

Mr. [illegible] asked and received unanimous consent to introduce a resolution referring rule 42 to the committee on rules to have it so amended that only articles reported from the committees should be printed. The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Dyer called up his resolution of yesterday, providing that all propositions hereafter introduced should be in proper form as articles or sections of articles of the constitution. He explained that his object was to stop this wholesale presentation of propositions on all sorts of subjects in all sorts of forms, and to require the members to arrange their propositions in convention and proper form for the committees to act on them. The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Griffitts asked that indefinite leave of absence be granted Mr. G. H. Stevenson, who had just learned of the accidental shooting of his brother and desired to return home. Leave was granted.

WILL MEET IN THE MORNING.

J. Z. Moore called up his resolution changing rule 1 so that the convention shall hereafter meet at 9 A. M. instead of 1:30 P. M. He claimed that the comfort of the members would be promoted by meeting in the morning, when the hall was cool, and that committee work could be more conveniently done in the afternoon.

Mr. Dyer said that he and several of the gentlemen sitting in his vicinity were opposed to the change. He thought the morning and evening hours were best for committee work.

Mr. Henry claimed that any change was needless, because the convention always had it in its power to adjourn to any hour it saw fit.

Mr. Dunbar hoped the rule would be changed. He considered it very unpleasant when a committee were holding a morning session and were well under way and interested in its work to have to break up and climb up this mountain to hold a session of the convention in the hottest part of the day.

Mr. Kinnear declared himself in favor of the change.

On taking the vote by rising the president declared a sufficient number up and the resolution was adopted. The convention will accordingly meet at 9 in the morning hereafter unless otherwise ordered.

Mr. Miner moved that no more propositions be printed unless specially ordered, but at the request of the members of the committee on rules to whom was referred rule 42 on that subject, he withdrew this motion.

[illegible] OF NEW RULES PROPOSED.

Mr. Stiles introduced a resolution providing for two rules. First, that any member may submit a draft of a proposed article or section, and that the same may be read and appropriately referred, but that the committee may or may not report it back at their option. Second, that all reports of standing committees containing an article or section of an article for the constitution shall be printed; referred to the committee on rules and order.

Mr. Suksdorf introduced a resolution instructing the clerk of the committee to procure from the auditors of the various counties the census of population of each county and the minor political divisions so far as possible. He explained that this was for the benefit of the committee on apportionment, who at present had no other basis to work upon save the last vote of the territory. The census of counties has recently been taken, and would be the best foundation for that committee to work upon, and he thought the information could be procured in ten days or two weeks.

Mr. Sohns thought it could not be had in less than four weeks, perhaps more, and the convention could not wait so long for it.

The resolution was lost.

Mr. Miner renewed his motion that no propositions be hereafter printed.

Mr. Godman wished to amend by substituting all pending or future propositions.

Mr. Henry raised the point of order that rule 4 did not allow such a motion, and claimed that if the convention desired to order omitting the printing of any proposition it must do so at the time it was under consideration.

The president ruled the point well taken, expressing his belief that when rule 42 declared that articles and propositions should be printed, etc., unless otherwise directed by the convention, it did not contemplate the making of such a general exception as the motion under consideration would provide for, but only an exception in each particular case.

Mr. Sullivan, of Whitman, moved (under authority of rule 53) that the operation of rule 42 be suspended until the committee on rules, to which it had already been referred, should report thereon. Carried by the necessary ⅔ vote.

On motion of Judge Turner the convention adjourned at 3:10 P. M., standing adjourned under the new rule until 9 A. M. Saturday.

THE NORTH DAKOTA CONVENTION.

Articles Submitted for the New Constitution—Resolutions.

BISMARCK, N. D., July 12.—The meeting of the committee on judiciary to-day developed the fact that there will be considerable difficulty in settling the work of this committee. There is no question about the supreme court, but the trouble has been with the county and district courts and resolves itself into a fight on the part of the would-be judicial lights for the emoluments of office.

When the convention assembled in the afternoon [illegible] to take charge of the [illegible] of the assets and liabilities of the territory and to settle temporarily the boundary line was carried.

[illegible] considered a number of articles for the constitution, among which were the following provisions: That the counties lying north of the forty-seventh parallel as they now exist be declared counties of the new state; that no new counties shall be established which shall reduce any county to less than 400 square miles or [illegible] inhabitants; that no county shall be divided in any way without the consent of a majority of the voters thereof; that no county seat shall be removed without the consent of the general election [illegible] of two-thirds of the voters of the county.

[illegible] offered a resolution that the question of the right of the state to tax the rolling and railing stock of the Northern Pacific road, which has [illegible] exempt from taxation, be referred to the judiciary committee to report within a week.

After some other [illegible] business was transacted the convention adjourned.

The temperance committee stands [illegible] to submit the prohibition question to a popular vote. A majority of the members have been instructed to that effect.

This settles the temperance legislation of the convention.

THE IDAHO CONVENTION.

Text of the Section Relating to Liberty of Conscience.

BOISE CITY, July 12.—No business was transacted by the Idaho constitutional convention to-day, the committees not being ready to report.

The main political issue relates to the Mormons. The committee on bill of rights to-day almost unanimously agreed to the following section relating to liberty of conscience:

SECTION 4.—The exercise and enjoyment of religious faith and worship shall forever be guaranteed [illegible] any civil or political right, privilege or capacity on account of [illegible] but the liberty of conscience [illegible] secured shall not be construed [illegible] polygamy or [illegible] No person shall [illegible] support any ministry or [illegible] denomination [illegible] preference be [illegible] any religious denomination or mode of worship.

THE SITUATION REVIEWED.

[illegible]—The convention to frame a constitution for the admission of Idaho has been in session [illegible] Congress failed to give Idaho an enabling act at the [illegible] as the other territories, but there was so strong a sentiment in favor of statehood that the governor called for a convention. This was [illegible] he had been assured by members of congress [illegible] early in the [illegible]

[illegible] is upon the [illegible] formerly held [illegible] [illegible] This question will come up [illegible] to-morrow and there will be a lively [illegible]

THE SIOUX FALLS CONVENTION.

A Very Short and Unimportant Session Held Yesterday.

[illegible] July 12.—To-day's session of the [illegible] half an hour [illegible] was the effort to reconsider the [illegible] convention yesterday [illegible] senate for every 1600 voters and [illegible] for every 800 voters or fraction [illegible] increase the number [illegible] thirty-two to forty-two and ninety-eight to 120.

COMMITTEE WORK, ETC.

The Judiciary To Be Modeled After That of California.

WALTMAN LOSES HIS MILEAGE

The Territorial Printing—Yakima Is After the Capital—Proceedings of the Conventions in Other Territories

OLYMPIA, W. T., July 12.—The judiciary committee, which met to-day, has practically indorsed the California system from beginning to end. It makes three supreme court judges to hold office for three, five and seven years, the full term after the first election to be six years, and the salary $4000; seventeen, possibly eighteen, superior court judges, with a salary of $3600. Pierce and Mason county to form a judicial district and to have two judges; King county two; Spokane, Stevens and Okanogan two; Walla Walla and Whitman one each, and the rest of the counties to be grouped together in separate districts with one judge each. The supreme court shall be an appellate court and have jurisdiction to issue writs of mandamus and prohibition to state officers. The supreme court shall be a court of original jurisdiction in all cases involving over $200. Justices' courts shall have jurisdiction in cases involving less than $100. Justices are made salaried officers. The legislature may establish separate police courts and determine in what cases they shall have jurisdiction.

COMMITTEE NOTES.

The committee on revenue and taxation has appointed a subcommittee of Messrs. Cowey, Schooley and Suksdorf to prepare an article taxing telegraph, Pullman car and similar companies.

The committee on miscellaneous subjects, to which was referred the prohibition petitions, have declared against prohibition except Mr. Dickey, and decided to table the petitions at present. Tuesday night the woman suffragists will have a hearing to present their claims to the committee on elections and elective rights.

The legislative committee has decided that the house of representatives of the new state shall not be less than sixty-three nor exceed ninety-nine, and the senate never less than one-third nor more than one-half the number of the house; the first legislature, and for three years, to consist of thirty-six in the senate and seventy-two in the house, when a census shall be taken and reapportionment made by the legislature as exigencies may require. The qualifications are citizenship of ten years and three years a resident in the state.

WALTMAN OUT HIS MILEAGE.

Secretary White of the territory refuses to pay Waltman, the first district delegate who was seated for a week and then gave his seat up to Dr. Travis, of that district. The secretary says the law on the subject is that "in case of a contested seat in the assembly both parties are entitled to mileage, provided the contestant is successful." There was no contest in this case. The secretary knows nothing about Waltman. He did know that Travis was elected and had his certificate waiting for him, and yet in the face of that fact the convention seated Waltman. When Travis arrived Waltman gave up the seat politely, and the convention by a vote certified Waltman's mileage and per diem to the secretary.

THE TERRITORIAL PRINTING.

The public printer, Colonel Thomas H. Cavanaugh, is antagonized by W. D. Knight, of the Spokane Chronicle, who it is said offers to do the work cheaper, but here the law steps in. In a recent letter to Secretary White of the territory, dated June 7, Matthews, the first comptroller, says:

"There has been no change in the rule regarding the printing either for legislatures or constitutional conventions in the territories. The incidental items of printing have always been left to the discretion of the secretary of the territory; the larger or more permanent jobs are to be contracted for by bidders after advertisement and under bond." Knight's bid was opened after Cavanaugh had been appointed, and then his bid, which was read in the convention, was referred to the printing committee, which made a majority and a minority report, which were referred to the judiciary committee.

"A blind man can see through the whole business," said a member of the convention. "It is a political move, but will not win."

"By the way," said the same statesman, "one of the clerks appointed is a dyed-in-the-wool democrat. If I could have my way none but republicans would be employed. Look at the Montana convention. How many republicans are employed there? Not one."

A BID FOR THE CAPITAL.

Yakima came to the front to-day. A nice pamphlet relative to the beauties of North Yakima for the capital was laid on every member's desk. It gave the reasons for its location at Yakima and had a pencil map and first-rate picture, with excellent capital moving literature inside the cover.

The convention changed the hour of meeting to morning instead of afternoon. There will be but a short session to-morrow, as many of the Sound members are preparing to go home and remain until Monday.

SCHOOL BOOKS.

There is a lively time here among the school book agents. Some of the publishing houses have formed a trust. Others not in the trust are fighting them for text books for the coming year in the public schools of the new state. Bids are in before Messrs. Morgan, McBride, Swim, [illegible] and [illegible] of the board of school teachers. Who will win and how many changes will be made in school books [illegible] pockets of the man of the family is a very serious question [illegible] book agent and the taxpayer. The agents appear to be very hungry. The board [illegible] worried.

THE "ARTHUR RICHMOND" LETTERS

James Redpath Comes Out With a Full Explanation of Them

NEW YORK, July 12.—A statement now comes from Beauvoir, Mississippi, in which James Redpath adds some information to the "Arthur Richmond" discussion. Redpath, who is the guest of Jefferson Davis, was formerly managing editor of the North American Review. He says that he read the manuscript of the "Arthur Richmond" letters, and that the first of the series was written by William Henry Hurlburt. The letter went to Europe before Bayard. The letter was printed, and then [illegible] Allen Thorndike Rice, to keep up the sensation that the first article created, invited other writers, among them Gail Hamilton and Don Piatt [illegible] Senator Ingalls was [illegible] was published from [illegible]

It Is Definitely Settled That His Extradition Will Be Allowed

OTTAWA, July 12.—It is now settled beyond doubt that the government will grant the application of President Harrison for the extradition of Burke for the alleged [illegible] The report of Judge Bain has not yet arrived from Winnipeg, and in the meantime it is open for Burke's counsel to apply for a writ of habeas corpus before [illegible] ordered that Judge B[illegible] decision may be reviewed. It is rumored [illegible] such action will be taken.

CHICAGO, July 12.—Judge Horton, of the criminal court, to-day heard arguments for and against the issuance of a writ of habeas corpus for John F. Beggs, [illegible] in connection with the Cronin case. He held that the indictment was a sufficient presumption of guilt to warrant holding the prisoner without bail, and refused to issue bail.

Three Prisoners Perish in the Jail at Jacksonville.

SHOCKING DEATH AT WALLULA

The Business Part of Fresno Swept by Fire, With a Loss of $200,000—A Sharp Blaze at Walla Walla.

JACKSONVILLE, Or., July 12.—Of all the fires which this coast has been visited with of late the most disastrous, so far as loss of life is concerned occurred here a little before 6 o'clock this morning, in which three prisoners perished. The jail, containing three prisoners, was discovered to be on fire, and before the cells could be reached the prisoners had suffocated. The fire originated in the front room, where the deputy sheriff slept, which made it impossible to reach the prisoners until the fire was extinguished.

The deputy sheriff had been called away during the night to protect his mining property from a fearful fire raging in the mountains.

The origin of the fire is a matter of conjecture.

The names, nativity and ages of the prisoners are:

Newton Cook, native of Tennessee, with initials of W. E. T. on his arm, aged 5?, unmarried.

Henry Hoover, married and with a family in Michigan, aged 55, also an honorably discharged Union soldier.

Frank Warner, aged 19, a native of Germany.

A GIRL BURNED TO DEATH.

A Shocking Accident at Wallula, Caused by Starting a Fire With Oil.

WALLULA, July 11.—This afternoon at 4 o'clock a 12-year-old girl of Mr. James Hamblin, a carpenter in this town, started a fire in the kitchen stove, pouring coal oil on the burning kindling. The oil can exploded, setting fire to the girl's clothing. The house also caught fire and burned to the ground, and the child was burned to death in the building.

There was no insurance on the building. As Mr. Hamblin is a poor man, the citizens of Wallula are making a collection to rebuild the house for him.

A DISASTROUS FIRE AT FRESNO

Business Property Destroyed of the Value of $200,000

FRESNO, Cal., July 12.—A fire broke out in the bakery of Le Blanc & Co. on J street this morning, and destroyed half a block of brick buildings running south to Mariposa street. The loss is $200,000, insurance, $100,000.

The fire consumed the heart of the business center of the city, and it was only by a great effort that a repetition of the Seattle disaster was prevented. The Fiske block and Griffith building are total losses. The heaviest losers are as follows:

L. H. Thompson, drugs, loss $14,000, insurance $7000.

Gilmour & Co., millinery and fancy goods, $16,000, insurance $9000.

Seevers & Co., dry goods, $20,000, insurance $12,000.

Lewison & Co., dry goods, $30,000, insurance $12,000.

McConnell & Hague, grocers, $10,000, insurance $6000.

M. Denicke, saloon, $18,000, insurance $8200.

J. D. Fiske, buildings, $30,000, insurance $10,000.

A number of small losses, aggregating $20,000, all insured.

LARGE BLAZE AT WALLA WALLA.

A Number of Buildings Destroyed at a Loss of $8000.

WALLA WALLA, July 12.—This afternoon fire broke out in a vacant Chinese washhouse on Main street, opposite the Exchange hotel.

Shortly thereafter the fire extended to Kirk's livery stable on the right, and Schwabacher's lime and coal oil warehouse on the left. In spite of the efforts of the fire department all were consumed.

The Exchange hotel, with its two annexes, caught, but was saved.

The old Money house, on Seventh, rear of Schwabacher's warehouse, was, with its contents, also destroyed.

Gilbert Hunt's agricultural works were with difficulty saved.

Had the wind continued high in the same direction as when the fire broke out, many more buildings would have been destroyed.

Owing to the large amount of oil in Schwabacher's warehouse the heat was intense, and the firemen for a long time could not approach close enough for effective work.

Total loss, about $8000; insurance, $3000.

The fire undoubtedly was incendiary. A fire was started in the rear of the annex of the Exchange hotel Thursday evening, but was subdued in time to prevent injury. It is feared that other attempts will be made.

FROM ELLENSBURGH.

Nearly $10,000 Already Received for the Fire Sufferers.

ELLENSBURGH, W. T., July 12.—To-day the relief committee received $2400 cash from Portland, $1080 cash from Spokane Falls, and a large amount of sugar and provisions from Tacoma. This is the largest amount received since the fire in one day, and makes a total of nearly $10,000.

Contracts were made to-day for brick for the Caldwell Shoudy hotel, 120x120 feet, four stories high, and to cost about $100,000. The farmers along the line of the Ellensburgh & Columbia River railroad, on which work begins next week, have been very liberal in granting rights of way and giving the enterprise their hearty support.

HOW TACOMA HELPED SEATTLE.

A Concise Statement of the Work of the Relief Committee.

TACOMA, July 12.—Statements having been made by certain Seattle officials to the effect that Tacoma had not contributed a cent in money towards the Seattle relief fund, your correspondent called on Samuel Collyer, chairman of the relief fund today. Mr. Collyer stated that the cash subscriptions to the relief fund amounted to about $12,000 besides a large quantity of provisions and clothing. The relief committee on the night of the fire made purchases of blankets, provisions and other necessaries, and served breakfast in Seattle on the morning of the fire, and maintained a relief tent in Seattle for a week. The bills for goods sent from here amount to about $5000, and the committee expended $2200 in Seattle for meats and provisions. They have already sent in cash $7500 and have unpaid subscriptions amounting to $3600 more, which will be collected as soon as Mr. Collyer can spare time. The committee has remitted money as fast as it came to hand, but have hurried the collections, because the Seattle relief committee has $75,000 or $80,000 unexpended in its treasury, and the subscriptions yet to be collected are all perfectly good.

Mr. Collyer has written Judge Lewis about the statements made. He states that there has been a persistent effort made by some Seattle officials to misrepresent Tacoma in the matter of relief.

FROM WALLA WALLA.

Death of Major Reese—The City Swarming With Tramps.

WALLA WALLA, July 12.—Thursday William Clark of [illegible] while [illegible] Junction, was stopped and robbed of $45 by three masked men believed to have been tramps lately hanging around Prescott.

Major R. R. Reese, well known all over Washington, a wealthy citizen of this city, died this morning of paralysis. He will be buried Sunday morning. He was born in Butler county, Ohio, in 1835, came to Oregon in 1854, and to Walla Walla in 1861, becoming one of the founders of the Statesman newspaper. In 1865 he abandoned the newspaper to go into the mercantile business, in which he was very successful. He also served two terms as county treasurer. In 1880 was elected to the Washington legislature, and was elected speaker of the house. He was very public spirited, a political leader, prominent in all enterprises, and generous. He leaves a wife and three children grown.

The city marshal reports fully 200 tramps living along the creeks in the outskirts of the city who live by begging and stealing, although plenty of work is offered on all sides.

Revival services of the United Baptist church here resulted in seventy five conversions the past fortnight.

HOMICIDE IN A WOOD CAMP

A Check Given in Settlement at the Point of the Pistol.

HELENA, July 12.—For some time trouble has existed at a wood camp near Rumsey because of a failure to pay the hands. This morning Benjamin Hill, a sub-contractor, shot and killed Charles Franzen, near Hill's cabin. Hill owed Franzen, who forced a settlement at the point of the pistol, with a check given under cover of Franzen's weapon. Words followed and the value of the check was questioned. Hill escaped under his wagon and ran toward his cabin, pursued by Franzen, firing. He turned, saying: "I don't want to hurt you. Go away. Let me alone." Still pursued, with drawn pistol, Hill turned and fired one shot, which took effect in the region of the heart. Franzen died instantly.

Yesterday morning Ahern crawled into the house through a window, made his way to the woman's bedside, and attempted to ravish her. The woman resisted and a terrible struggle ensued. Ahern was beaten off, a little child began to scream, and neighbors were awakened. The woman fainted on being rescued. A party was formed and Ahern was pursued and captured. The woman is in a critical condition.

THE PARNELL COMMISSION.

The Production of Books and Papers Seems To Be All on One Side.

LONDON, July 12.—Before the Parnell commission to-day, counsel for the Parnellites asked Soames, solicitor for the Times, to produce a list of the payments made to witnesses on behalf of the Times, and all communications between himself and the Times' agents in America and Ireland. Attorney General Webster declined to allow Soames to produce the communications.

Soames was then recalled and testified. He had not made out a list of the payments made to witnesses. There was no definite arrangement as to how witness should pay Le Caron. Several payments had been made him.

McDonald, manager of the Times, said he understood that Le Caron would be provided for. He had lost his employment in the [illegible] secret service. As long as he needed it he was to receive assistance.

Houston, secretary of the Loyal and Patriotic Union, testified that the articles on "Parnellism and Crime" published by the Times were elaborate reprints of "Parnellism Unmasked," compiled by Pigott, for which witness paid £60. Witness stated that he was willing to lay the books of the union before the court, but objected to their being used by political opponents. Witness borrowed £100 from Lord Ardilaun and Sir Roland Bonner Hassell, and £850 from Dr. McGuire to buy the letters printed by the Times. Houston produced a voucher for £100 paid to Eugene Davis.

Sir Charles Russell—Don't you believe that the voucher is in Pigott's handwriting?

Witness—They write similarly, but I don't believe it is in Pigott's handwriting.

Sir Charles Russell demanded the production of the books of the Loyal and Patriotic Union. He said that he desired to prove that the whole indictment contained in "Parnellism and Crime" proceeded from the union. Pigott had been used by a powerful political organization to cover the plan.

Attorney General Webster contended that the books were wanted in order to give the Parnellites free range upon other political matters.

The court decided against the application.

ENJOYING HIMSELF IN CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, July 12.—John L. Sullivan and Charlie Johnson reached Chicago at 11 o'clock and left the train at Twenty second street and disappeared. No one at the portion resorts of the city knows of his whereabouts.

Sullivan remained in Chicago to-night and arranged to leave for New York to-morrow at 3 A. M. by the Grand Trunk. The route chosen will take him through Canada and is the road furthest possible from hostile Ohio. He kept himself secluded from observation as much as possible, but managed to visit two or three places where he could enjoy himself thoroughly in private.

MULDOON AND OTHERS.

CHICAGO, July 12.—A Louisville last night an Associated Press reporter joined Muldoon, Cleary, Larson, Davies of Chicago, and others of the Sullivan party who escaped arrest at Nashville yesterday and came with them to Chicago. They reached here at 7 o'clock this morning. At the outskirts of the city they left the train, took a carriage across the southern end of the city, and took the out going train for the East in order to avoid any chance of arrest. Muldoon escaped arrest at Nashville by pretending to be virtuously indignant and declaring to the police that he was no prize fighter, but a gentleman. Muldoon says Kilrain was over trained, and at least ten pounds too light.

THE KILRAIN PARTY.

They Are Said To Be Skulking Somewhere in Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 12.—Sheriff Smith, of Parthol? new county, makes a statement to-night that Kilrain and party are still in Indiana, and a dispatch from North Vernon last night announcing that they had boarded the train there is pure fiction. The officer says he followed the party from Columbus to Edinburg, twelve miles north, but citizens of the town did their utmost to conceal the fugitives, their efforts being successful. Smith says they left Edinburg last night and drove to Farmer Cooper's residence, several miles in the country, where they remained until noon to-day, when they left in a carriage. Their present whereabouts is unknown. Mitchell was heard to say they would work toward Chicago, but would avoid Cincinnati.

JOHNNY GRIFFIN KNOCKED OUT

Billy Murphy, the Champion Feather Weight of Australia, the Winner.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—The fight to a finish which was to have taken place at the California athletic club rooms to-night between Tommy Warren, the feather weight champion of America, and Johnny Griffin, of Boston, was declared off on Wednesday, Warren having sprained his ankle.

Billy Murphy, the champion feather weight of Australia, who has been training for a fight with Frank Murphy, the English champion, agreed however to take Warren's place in the ring to-night. The purse was fixed at $1800.

Preceding the Griffin-Murphy fight, George Brown of Boston, and young Brady of San Francisco, bantams, had a three round set-to, followed by a ten round contest for $150 between the Montana Kid and Billy Hennessy, of Kansas City. The referee awarded the fight to Hennessy at the end of the ten rounds.

Billy McCarthy, the newly arrived Australian middleweight, then gave an exhibition with Frank Allen of New York.

GRIFFIN AND MURPHY.

Griffin then entered the ring, followed shortly after by Murphy. Griffin weighs 120½ pounds, and Murphy 117. Paddy Gorman and Bill McCarthy seconded Murphy, while Tom Higham and Joe Choynski performed like services for Griffin. Hiram Cooke was referee. Time was called at 9:10.

First round—Murphy led with his left and Griffin fell back. Murphy feinted and again led, getting in the first good blow.

Second round—Griffin feinted with his right, and Murphy rushed, getting in a left hander on the jaw, shortly after giving Griffin both a right and a left hander. In the clinch that followed Griffin caught him about the neck, but the men broke away without a blow. Griffin was still wary. After a little by play Murphy gave his opponent several blows in the ribs, accompanied by his usual grunt, denoting an effort to make the blow good.

Third round—Murphy again rushed the fighting with both hands. Griffin got in a light tap on his nose, getting in return a right hander full in the face. An interchange of blows followed with no material advantage to either. Murphy then rushed the fighting, and a clinch followed, lasting several seconds. Griffin landed on Murphy's ear repeatedly with his right. Murphy merely smiled, and chasing his man across the ring, laid him flat with a right hander on the jaw, knocking him completely out amid tremendous applause.

It was several seconds before Griffin recovered and was able to walk from the ring.

WITH CLOSED DOORS.

Opening of the Divorce Suit of Mrs. Hume, of Berkeley.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—The trial of the divorce suit of Lizzie K. Hume against Joseph Hume, the Berkeley capitalist and Columbia river salmon packer, has been commenced with closed doors, Judge Ellsworth presiding.

The parties were married about eighteen years ago, and for some years, until lately, resided in a comfortable house on Bancroft Way, Berkeley. It is said that recently the husband complained of her spending too much money in household expenses, blaming her for extravagance, and curtailed the allowance. This brought on an estrangement and he left her in possession of the residence while he put up at a hotel. It is further stated that he offered her $150,000 and not to sue for a separation, but it is stated that he is worth a million or more, and she would take nothing less than a quarter of that sum, as the property is said to be community property.

The case will be resumed on Monday next.

ARRIVAL OF THE ACAPULCO

With a Number of Officers of the Wrecked Steamer Granada.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—The steamer Acapulco arrived this afternoon from Panama, having on board a number of officers of the steamer Granada, that was wrecked south of Manzanillo, Mexico, June 22. The captain of the Granada, first assistant engineer, seven of the crew and two passengers remained near the scene of the wreck.

The officers decline to give detailed account of the grounding of the steamer, but deny the statements made by passengers that any trouble arose among the latter during the wreck.

On board the Acapulco was found Maurice Welch, a former friend of Dillon's, who shipped as a sailor from this port on the last trip of this steamer. [illegible] dispatch stated that it was a picture of Welch that had been identified by several persons there as the suspect Simonds, who appeared in the Carlson cottage case as the man who bought the Carlson cottage furniture. Welch manifested marked interest in the recital of the Cronin case, but denied that he had had any connection with it. He easily proved an alibi.

There is still on board about $200,000 in specie and this capital [illegible].

One of the officers said that this might have been saved on the day following the wreck, but the first care was for the passengers' baggage. After this had all been taken off a trip was made for the specie, but it was then covered by about four feet of water.

The rock on which the steamer struck is about three quarters of a mile from the beach. The smokestack and forward part of the Granada remain above water, while the after portion is entirely covered, the top of the mast being just visible. Inside of the rock the water is sixty feet deep, while directly outside there is a depth of fifteen fathoms.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC EARNINGS.

They Do Not Come Up to the Expenses This Year by $1,708,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—The gross earnings of the Southern Pacific system from January to May were $[illegible]; the operating expenses were $[illegible]; the betterments, taxes, interest and United States requirements consumed $[illegible], leaving a deficit of $1,708,000. Included in the six and one half millions is $1,6[illegible],000 for new structures, among others a brick depot at Los Angeles. The betterment item is made up of track renewals, the rebuilding of locomotives and many other expenses of a similar character.

The great decrease in the earnings appears to be due to the falling off in the through business. The indications are that the remaining seven months will bring up the receipts to a handsome figure for the year. It is estimated that local business is only about 5 per cent below that of last year.

IT BIT WORSE THAN AN ADDER

California Brandy Killed a Man Who Was Suffering From a Spider Bite.

ST. HELENA, Cal., July 12.—Giacomo Nese, a Swiss, 40 years old, working at the Franco-Swiss cellar in Conn valley, was bitten on the face while asleep yesterday by a large spider. He at once walked to town, saw a physician, and obtaining something to reduce the inflammation, and went to a hotel for breakfast. While there he was asked what had bitten him, and told the proprietor a rattlesnake. This alarmed his friend, and he told him to drink some brandy at once. At the same time handing him a quart bottle full. Nese drank the entire quart of brandy and fell back in his chair, dead drunk, from which he never awoke. He died to-night and the coroner's jury brought in a verdict of death from alcoholism.

CALIFORNIA NEWS ITEMS

San Francisco Notes.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—Wheat has already begun to move towards Port Costa, the great shipping point of San Francisco. The shipping has commenced much earlier this year than usual, there being 100 cars daily at Port Costa, against an average of thirty five at this time last year. The only danger is that the warehouses along the straits will be overcrowded, as it is understood that there is a scarcity of vessels. Crops of all kinds throughout the state promise to be so heavy that the facilities of the Southern Pacific railroad will be strained to the utmost to handle them.

The heavy rains in Texas are causing delays in railroad trains. The east bound Southern Pacific train from El Paso has been stopped, waiting for repairs, there being several large washes. The movement of business, however, was resumed last night.

The south bound Oregon train that arrived to-day was delayed by the heavy rains in Southern Oregon.

Lizzie Case of Oakland, 14 years old, has been in a state of unconsciousness for fifty six days resulting from cerebro-spinal meningitis and complications.

The secretary of the board of harbor commissioners reports that the receipts for the year ending June 30, 1889, including dockage, tolls, rents, special permits, etc., amounts to the sum of $[illegible]. For the same period in 1888 the amount was $380,162, which was $27,000 in excess of any one previous year.

W. J. Mead, for five years past city clerk of Tacoma, is visiting California for his health and is stopping at the Lick. He says that the question as to who shall represent the state in the United States senate, is now the all absorbing one there.

The New Academy of Sciences

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—The corner stone of the new Academy of Sciences was laid to-day. Charles F. Crocker was president of the day. Addresses were made by Irving M. Scott and Dr. Harkness, president of the academy.

In his brief remarks Colonel Crocker said that for twenty years the academy had been obliged to content itself with its inconvenient place on the corner of California and Dupont streets, but through James Lick's generosity the society would soon be in large and comfortable quarters.

In his oration Irving M. Scott spoke of the history of science and philosophy. He told of mythology and monotheism, of mysticism and the Egyptian priests, and of the scientific dogmas of the ancients, and dwelt at length upon the discoveries made by scientists in every age.

Dr. W. Harkness, president of the academy, gave its history and the remarked that a few years ago Charles Crocker gave the academy $20,000 to be used in original research, which could not before be prosecuted for a lack of funds. A collection was also presented by Mr. Crocker and Leland Stanford. In 1873 a deed from James Lick to the lot on which the new building will stand was presented to the academy as residuary legatee. It will also receive $400,000 from his estate.

He Proved To Be Sane.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—Wong Ah Hing, who was recently convicted in Judge Murphy's court of the murder of his uncle, was examined at the county jail this morning as to his sanity. At the time he was tried Hing offered no explanation for the killing, and the jury found him guilty of murder in the first degree. When he appeared a few days since to receive the death sentence, the judge stated that he was not entirely satisfied as to the sanity of the prisoner and ordered that he be examined by a committee of medical experts.

After a full examination the members of the committee came to the unanimous conclusion that Hing was perfectly sane, and will within a few days present the judge with a written report to that effect.

It is understood that the judge will now sentence him to be hanged.

Death From Lockjaw

MARYSVILLE, July 12.—On the Fourth of July Charles Wiskotschill, 13 years of age, accidentally shot himself in the hand with a toy pistol, with which he was playing. The wound was not considered dangerous. It was bound up, and he went about as usual, his hand not causing him any trouble. On Wednesday he was taken suddenly ill, blood poisoning having set in, and the next morning lockjaw made its appearance, accompanied occasionally by severe inward spasms. His condition remained so until death released him from his sufferings this morning.

Knights of the Patriarchal Circle.

CHICAGO, July 12.—The Knights of the Patriarchal Circle, resplendent in gold bespangled uniforms and representing a number of different cities, went through the entire temple manual today, and the prize drill at the baseball park. The Occidental commanders, of Chicago, won the supreme temple prize, the Bloomington knights the $400 prize in the first class, and the Des Moines the $200 in the second class.

The supreme temple to-day adopted a revised constitution and by-laws, providing for a grand temple in each state, and reducing the heretofore unwieldy supreme temple to a compact body of about twenty men.

Failure of the Magdeburg Sugar Ring.

LONDON, July 12.—The Magdeburg sugar ring, being unable to make a settlement, was compelled to ask for a week's grace, which the sugar export association declined to grant. The collapse caused the fall of four marks in Hamburg yesterday.

THE MONEY THAT IS REPRESENTED

A Revival of the Agitation Over a Proposed Gigantic Railway Trust—More English Capital Coming

NEW YORK, July 12.—James Weeks, chairman of the committee on unlisted securities of the New York exchange, has succeeded in learning the amount of certificates that various trusts have outstanding. The largest one, trust out to be out of the new state [illegible] Its officers sent word that there had been issued $[illegible] certificates of the par value of $100 each, representing a capitalization of $[illegible]. Less than two months ago it was shown that the capital of this trust was at [illegible]. Some of ever [illegible] $50,000,000 in so [illegible] a period purchased Wall street, and there was a rush to dispose of these certificates. This forced prices down and made the local trusts very weak at [illegible]. The following table will show the capitalization of each of the five trusts:

Lead	$33,018,900
Sugar	[illegible]
Cotton oil	[illegible]
Distillery and Cattle Feeders	[illegible]
American cattle	13,300,100
Total	$12[illegible]

A RAILWAY TRUST.

The Subject Being Agitated Among the Managers of the Roads.

CHICAGO, July 11.—A circular letter to the railroad managers from the New York bankers John J. McCook & Co. was published here this morning. It suggested a gigantic railroad trust, various trusts covering the entire country as the only solution of the railway row.

A New York dispatch to the Associated Press says McCook admits the authenticity of the letter and says he has received the acknowledgment of its receipt from several managers, but that no one has replied to it. Morawitz, the partner of McCook, says that such a scheme is on foot among the railroads.

A LONDON GAS SYNDICATE.

Water Gas To Be Sold for About 25 Cents Per Thousand Feet.

CHICAGO, July 12.—Representatives of a London gas syndicate are here. They propose to organize a company with $20,000,000 capital to promote gas companies in all cities in the United States large enough to make it pay. It is said that water gas can be manufactured and sold for about 25 cents per thousand feet.

SENATOR WASHBURNE'S FINANCES.

His Business Partner Acknowledges That He Has Lost Heavily.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 12.—With reference to the published statement that United States Senator W. D. Washburne had become almost bankrupt, Major Hale, the business partner of Senator Washburne, and a man who stands near him in almost every way, was asked as to the truth of the report.

"It is true," replied he, "that Mr. Washburne will withdraw from the firm of Washburne, Martin & Co., at the close of the current year—September 1. This is done in carrying out Mr. Washburne's well known determination to close up the large business interests, with which he has been so closely identified for nearly twenty five years, and to devote himself to his senatorial duties. As has been repeatedly announced, he has practically closed up his lumber business. He has gone abroad for the purpose of visiting the springs at Carlsbad, in Bohemia, for an absence of a couple of months, in the hope of regaining his health, which has been anything but good ever since the heavy strain of the senatorial contest. His residence is closed and will remain so until his return from Washington, fully a year from now. He has lost a lot of money, but has enough left to insure him a comfortable living. I cannot say anything further in regard to his financial affairs."

A CONFLICT AT HOMESTEAD

Bloodshed Threatened Between Strikers and Pinkerton Men.

PITTSBURG, July 12.—One hundred Pinkerton men armed with Springfield rifles arrived here this morning and were taken to Homestead to the Bessemer Steel Works. They will be placed about the mill to protect it and the workmen from the strikers. The sheriff will also swear in 100 deputies for the same purpose. The struggle promises to be the most bitter in the history of strikes and lockouts in this section, both sides being determined, and a long fight is anticipated.

At noon 125 deputies arrived at Homestead and were immediately surrounded by strikers to the number of nearly 1000 and requested to return to the city. The deputies refused, and the crowd would not allow them to enter the mill.

Forty of the deputies had their badges torn off their coats and were driven away. Sheriff McCandless is now swearing in additional deputies, and will have 400 or 500 more on the ground to-morrow. If necessary, he says he will increase the number to 2000.

"TRIUMPHANT DEMOCRACY"

Mr. Carnegie Can Now Add a New Chapter to His Book

PITTSBURG, July 12.—The strikers at Carnegie's steel plant have had full charge of the town of Homestead since noon to-day, and no one dares to interfere. Had not the deputy sheriffs calmly and meekly surrendered upon their arrival at noon to-day they would have been mobbed. They were surrounded by a crowd of 3000 men, and their badges and clothes were almost torn from their bodies. A riot was only prevented by the deputies offering no resistance.

To-night the strikers are patrolling the streets, and every stranger is compelled to give an account of himself or leave town. Pinkerton men on the way have not arrived, and the strikers are watching for them. When they reach the scene interesting times are expected.

The sheriff will go to Homestead early to-morrow, with a posse of 500 men, and says he will increase it to 2000 if necessary. The men are desperate and affairs have an ugly aspect. Men employed at other mills controlled by Carnegie are considering the advisability of quitting work if the strike is not settled. This would increase the number of strikers by several thousand.

BECOMING ALARMING.

Trouble Anticipated by the Mayor of Oklahoma City.

KANSAS CITY, July 12.—A Times special from Fort Leavenworth says: General Merritt, U. S. A., accompanied by an aide, has left for Oklahoma City. Trouble is reported to be brewing at that place. The new settlers have resolved themselves into opposition to the city administration and have issued a call for a new election on the 16th.

The situation is so threatening that Mayor Couch has issued a proclamation, commanding the peace. Yesterday becoming alarmed he telegraphed for General Merritt.

A Serious Complication

USEFUL INFORMATION

Tilbury Fox, M. D., the eminent medical writer, in his work "Skin Diseases," thus accounts for the pimples so common on the face and neck. Eating too rich or too greasy food, or too hearty eating while the excretory organs are sluggish, causes in most people indigestion or a dyspepsial condition, which causes the blood to move sluggishly, which in turn enfeebles the pores. The result is, that the exuding secretions block in the pores, which inflame, each distinct inflammation being a pimple. Dr. Fox therefore does not prescribe "blood purifiers" so called, but a "dyspepsia cure" to be taken, to use his own words "till the dyspepsial symptoms have disappeared." The old idea was, that face eruptions were caused by a "humor in the blood," for which they treated the blood, giving the mineral potash. Hence the reason why the older sarsaparillas contain potash. Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla follows the modern ideas of Dr. Fox, and aims with gentle vegetable alteratives at the stomach and digestive organs. The reason is apparent why it cures dyspepsia and indigestion, and the pimples and skin eruptions which result therefrom, and why sarsaparillas that use minerals fail.

Sixty weeks for your watch you will not put up $17 50 commission for an agent, who forms a clique to sell you a $70 watch, nor will you be asked to furnish bonds of "two responsible property holders" to make certain that your installments will be paid The club plan is a profitable one many members will soon tire of depositing a dollar a week and will give it up. The money they have paid in is clear profit to the managers In a certain sense, the club plan may be all right, but it is unbusiness-like to pay $60 for a watch that you can buy for $30, and can put on and wear without the assistance of a bondsman or club former

LET IT BE LOOKED INTO

Here Is Something for Chief Parish to Investigate, if He Will

The attention of the committee on streets is called to the fact that a stairway is being built through the sidewalk at the northwest corner of Alder and Second streets, to a cellar under a building occupied by Chinese. This is in direct violation of the law, and it might be well to know by whose authority or neglect of duty it is being done. It is pretended that the staircase is to be covered by a trap-door or an iron grating, but it is a safe bet that the cellar is to be used as an underground gambling or opium joint or both combined and that the staircase once established it will be kept open as a public entrance to that cellar There is a stair ascent to a cellar at the north end of the same block on Second street and this cellar has been a regular hell hole of a Chinese saloon gambling den cock pit et[illegible]

If the Chinese can put stairways through the sidewalks, it will not be long before free born Americans will be claiming the same privilege. The matter of attending to all obstructions of the streets and sidewalks is in the hands of the police An effort was made to place this duty on the shoulders of the superintendent of streets and his deputies some time since but the council for some reason would not have it that way

Perhaps they will conclude that it will be better to make the change and have the matter in the hands of those over whom they can have [illegible] control at least As it is obstructions do not seem to obstruct

BUSINESS IS IN GOOD CONDITION:

In Oregon Failures Have Been Fewer, and the Amount of Liabilities Is Smaller

The circular issued by R G Dun & Co's Mercantile Agency reviewing the business of the country for the first six months of 1889 shows a vast improvement in the situation in Oregon, compared with the corresponding period a year ago The number of failures is less by one third, and the amount of liabilities is not one sixth what it was a year ago Idaho also shows considerable improvement, but in Washington and Montana the contrary is the case, the number of failures and the extent of the liabilities for the six months being much larger than for the first half of 1888 In both territories there have been twice as many failures. In Washington the liabilities are over one and a half times as large, and in Montana six times as large On the whole the record for the six months is much better than for the same period a year ago This is due to the decreased amount of the liabilities in Oregon which more than overcomes the increase in Washington and Montana

The record for the six months, with a comparison with that for the same time last year is as follows

	1889		1888
	Failures	Liabilities	Failures	Liabilities
Oregon	27	$33,700	80	$[illegible] 000
Washington	50	178 500	26	110 000
Idaho	10	71 500	12	[illegible] 013
Montana	20	194 400	9	[illegible] 100
Total	107	$540 100	127	$813 113

The record for the three months ended June 30 was as follows

	Failures	Liabilities
Oregon	9	$44 700
Washington	32	71 500
Idaho	7	61 900
Montana	8	119 500
Total	5[illegible]	$2[illegible]9,600

July 12, 1889

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

When did that part of the country now known as Idaho become first so known?

JOHN PARKER

[Idaho was created a territory by act of congress approved March 3 1863 from portions of Dakota Nebraska and Washington territories, and embracing the present territory of Montana and nearly all of Wyoming Within its domain the Cœur d'Alene mission was established in 1842. The permanent settlement of the territory did not begin until the discovery of gold in 1860.]

Residence and Barn of John Wentworth Destroyed by Fire

A Blooded Bull Burned to Death—Loss About $4000 Change of Service—Wood Burned St John Railway

Yesterday morning at about [illegible] o'clock the [illegible] and barn of John Wentworth at Sunnyside with nearly their entire contents were destroyed by fire. The house [illegible] which [illegible] the southeast part of the Sunnyside tract and about [illegible] north of the [illegible] going up. The barn stood just east of the dwelling, and in [illegible] the fire originated

Mrs [illegible] who lives a short distance from Mr Wentworth's place saw the flames shooting up from the rear of the barn and [illegible] gave the alarm. The family were sleeping and only on the second floor when they were aroused

Mr Wentworth was so overcome with excitement that for a few moments he was unable to take intelligent action, but Mrs Wentworth went to the barn and succeeded in getting the horses out. A fine blooded bull was also fastened inside the barn valued at $500. Mrs Wentworth endeavored to release the animal but was unsuccessful and it perished in the flames

In the meantime Mr Wentworth got out a few things from the house. Some trunks packed to be sent to the coast were saved, but by the time Mrs Wentworth got back to the house the flames had enveloped the entire building The house and furniture except a few articles were a total loss In the barn there was a large quantity of hay, some machinery and the blooded bull. The total loss will foot up about $4000 and on the property destroyed was an insurance of $1500 in the Salem company distributed as follows On the dwelling $[illegible] barn $100, hay $1200, and on stock and implements $[illegible]

Large brands of fire were carried to the frame of the factory building but a careful watch was kept and the new structure escaped

PRINT THE ORDINANCES

It is generally conceded that the time has come when the ordinances that have been passed since the publication of the ordinance book about two years ago should be printed in book form But little more than half the ordinances are to be found in the printed ordinance book and when an ordinance is referred to, the recorder's book must be overhauled in order to find it In fact, very few people really know anything about city matters, and don't know what action the council has taken on important matters These ordinances are only published by title in the council proceedings and only the most important ones are summarized It would be far better to have them printed in permanent and cheap book form

HIGH-PRESSURE AGE.

From the New York Record

Very aptly has this century been called the "high pressure" age In no period of the world's history did men live so fast as they do now By fast life is not meant exclusively dissipation but rapidity of execution of whatever is taken in hand—that hurry and bustle for which Americans have been so truly noted that to-day the business or professional man scarcely allows himself proper time for eating and sleeping

This, coupled with late hours, sedentary [illegible] unbridled indulgence in the passions of youth and the excesses of mature years, has given rise to a catalogue of disease mental nervous and sexual, which if not promptly and radically counteracted will not only destroy the vigor and manhood of the present generation but further than [illegible] beyond all [illegible] those who come after us Fortunately however medical science has [illegible] progress—no more striking [illegible] which can be cited than the system of electro-magnetic treatment as practiced by Drs Darrin

These physicians make a specialty of treating these diseases by this common sense and logical system of electro-magnetic applications which avoids stomach drugging and bears directly on the parts affected and have given the subject their closest thought and study They have been successful when all others have failed, in giving vigor to the shattered constitution and relief to those who have become unfitted to perform the duties and the obligations of life

Those needing the advice of honorable and reliable medical men would do well to apply at their consultation rooms, where every information will be afforded, and consultation may be had free of charge

The doctors have had a wonderful record of success in the past few years testimonials by the thousand affording convincing proof of the efficacy of their system of treatment

Drs Darrin's Place of Business

Dr Darrin can be consulted free at 235 Fifth street corner of Main Portland Office hours from 10 to 4 o'clock daily, evenings 7 to 8 Sundays, 10 to 12 All curable chronic diseases, loss of manhood, blood taints, syphilis gleet, gonorrhœa, stricture spermatorrhœa, seminal weakness or loss of desire of sexual power, in man or woman catarrh and deafness, are confidentially and successfully treated Cures of private diseases guaranteed, and never published in the papers Most cases can receive home treatment after a visit to the doctor's office. Inquiries answered and circulars sent free

A COMMENDABLE DECISION

The decision of Judge Stearns in the matter of the guardianship of the minor Holladay heirs upholding the legal right of the mother, the father being dead to appoint a testamentary guardian for her children furnishes just cause for self congratulation to every mother in the state Without special reference to the merits of the case which gave opportunity for this decision and which THE OREGONIAN has no desire to pass upon the principle of the equality of the father and mother before the law in the matter of the control of and responsibility for their children is one so thoroughly grounded in justice that it must meet the approval of every fair minded person and especially of every intelligent parent in the state The change of sentiment that resulted in the enactment of a law that made such a judicial decision as this possible has been a gradual one so much so that it is only when the statutes of to-day as bearing upon the question are quoted side by side with the decree of the old English common law that the public is able to realize the monstrous injustice to which mothers were subjected under the rulings of the latter Oregon has shown a more progressive spirit in this direction than has most other states yet it is only by [illegible] during the present decade that the statute under which Judge Stearns rendered this decision has been in force Under a plain common sense construction of a law passed in 1880 it is decided that while either parent has the legal right to dispose of children by will to the exclusion of the rights of the other while surviving either may appoint a testamentary guardian in the event of the death of the other

Divested of all legal verbiage this act simply makes the rights of parents in the control of the persons earnings and estates of minor children equal instead of as formerly vesting all authority rights and privileges in the father The sufferings which the injustice permitted and often enforced under this old statute both to mothers and children in many instances can scarcely be estimated Fortunately they will not be duplicated in this state so long as humane and just jurists intelligently interpret the statute which was intended to abrogate the cruelty and injustice of the old common law toward mothers

Measuring the distance which after years of special endeavor in this direction still intervenes between the claim of woman suffragists for the ballot and the recognition of the demand we are prone to declare that the "woman's rights movement has made no progress" but viewing the great change in public sentiment as expressed in the laws in favor of the equality of women with men we are compelled to reverse this judgment and admit that an agitation that has accomplished this is certainly not without wholesome and generous fruitage It may indeed, be said to matter little if the results for which such persistent fight has been maintained for a third of a century stop short of what his honor Judge Stearns somewhat facetiously terms "the divine right to vote and hold office" since the "weightier matters of the law" have been fulfilled

A MUGWUMP'S IDEAL

E J Phelps ex minister to England in a recent address before the Phi Beta Kappa Society of Yale college, among other things said

> That the contests of party must continue is inevitable They are the curse of free government but are a part of the price of it

Phelps was assistant solicitor of the treasury under Fillmore's administration he was a bitter pro slavery whig in those days, and was a boon companion of ex Secretary Bayard When the whig party broke up Phelps joined the Northern pro slavery Bourbon democracy that before the war deplored secession as an economic blunder but denied the right of the nation to restore the Union by coercion during the war cheered on the kennel of copperhead dogs let loose by Vallandigham and Voorhees to snarl and snap at Lincoln's heels and after the war were never weary of trying to make the gift of freedom a burden or a mere bauble to the negro Phelps ran for the legislature in his state and was beaten badly in a town that has repeatedly elected a democrat he ran for governor on the democratic ticket in 1882 and was beaten by 26,003 majority Outside of this he never went to a primary or attended a convention or gave any attention to politics except when he spoke for peace at any price in August 1864, and when in 1880 he printed a letter urging Bayard's nomination over the Union soldier Hancock, saying that the country had had quite enough of men bred in a military barracks Up to 1885 when Cleveland or rather Bayard made him minister to England he was never weary of denouncing the American experiment as foreordained to wretched failure never weary of praising England as the only form of government under which a gentleman could live with any honor or satisfaction to himself So disgusted were the leaders of his party in his own state with him that one of them sarcastically said that the only justification for his appointment to England was that it was perhaps good policy to send those democrats abroad who were absolutely worthless when they were not dangerous to the success of the party at home And this is the man that stands up before an audience of American college youth and seeks to poison their minds with the contempt he has never ceased to express for the institutions of the United States An aristocrat from boyhood at 70 years of age he cannot conceal the fact that he prefers the English system to our own He imports his politics from the same country he does his clothes and his pronunciation He is redolent of mugwump rot about "spoils and spoilsmen" politics and politicians parties and party contests What would he have? He would prefer England where the elections are more disorderly than our own where money is spent like water in politics by both parties where the most brilliant talent cannot get elected to parliament except at the cost of thousands of dollars to some patron or faction where the spoils are clutched by the crown and the court instead of by the people as in America Where could he go to find a country where the steady advance to constitutional freedom has not been won by the ceaseless battle of political contests? Not to England not to France not to Italy or Germany Where would he go? He would have to go to Russia where a Tartar despotism still survives as absolute as was that of Tamerlane There he would find no "party contests that are the curse of free government" but would find the peace of political death broken only by an occasional shot fired at the czar by men and women of genius and culture who faint and few are the only friends of constitutional freedom in that unhappy country We can be rid of the "contests of party" by adopting the Russian or the Turkish system

The Wasco Sun, a democratic organ, asks this question

> If the Southern laborer is not paid more than the European laborer (and we take THE OREGONIAN'S statement that he isn't, as true) why isn't he?

Simply because his vote is suppressed by the Southern democracy and the interests of Southern labor have no voice whatever in directing the political social and industrial organizations of the South A further consequence is seen in the fact that the labor of the South is not represented in congress, but its franchise is usurped by the non laboring class, who devote themselves to the democratic party to supervision of the ballot and to free trade. If the labor of the South had the ballot the political situation there as well as the national political situation would be radically changed The present situation is summed in the fact that the labor of the South is not allowed to vote The logical counterpart of this would be disfranchisement of the labor of the South and the free trade for which the democratic party contends

A FALLACIOUS ARGUMENT

In a letter published in THE OREGONIAN two days ago, a citizen of Walla Walla devoted to answer and confute the suggestion made by Hon W Lair Hill to the effect that a clause should be inserted in the constitution of Washington forbidding any county, town or city to become a stockholder in any corporation or to lend its credit in aid thereof

The attempt to answer Mr Hill's suggestion is based on the assumption that Washington is about to be divided or partitioned between two great railway corporations— the Northern Pacific and the Union Pacific and that the people of any county or city in the state ought to be permitted to meet this combination by aiding other railways

But in fact the present situation in Washington presents the strongest of all possible arguments in support of Mr Hill's suggestion The present [illegible] all to one of the parties to the great combination for which the citizen of Walla Walla is [illegible] In other words the contest between the great corporations will still be [illegible] even now in force—and the public money will be paid for nothing

This is not especially the business of THE OREGONIAN only in so far as this journal takes an interest in all matters relating to the welfare of every part of the Northwest But inasmuch as the article referred to was printed in its columns it regards it as a duty to point out the fallacy of the argument No county or city ever yet loaned its credit to a railway but was sorry that it had done so and most have tried to repudiate the obligation

MODERN REALISM

This is distinctively an age of realism of practical thought and activity of wonderful progress in the arts and sciences and of extraordinary commercial enterprise, characterized by the inception of mighty schemes for the benefit of mankind and for the enrichment of the individual It is an age of wonders and of almost miraculous achievement so much so in fact that the world ceases to wonder Great discoveries are constantly being made but the world looks on with unconcern until the new machine or scientific fact is fully tested and authenticated and then accepts it as a useful accession to mechanics or to the accumulation of human wisdom

Living in such an age enriched by centuries of human history and of human wisdom surrounded by the comforts and luxuries of an advanced civilization apparently animated by a spirit of practicality in all things it is yet true however paradoxical it may seem that the man of the latter half of the Nineteenth century is not altogether practical He is by the very means that he seeks to make [illegible] sunk in a slough of impracticability and obscurity Ostensibly utility [illegible] the criterion of his almost every act He builds transcontinental railways and forms gigantic schemes for amassing wealth his every thought is utilitarian and yet he is self deceived He is not living in the material world that he has been planning for but in an artificial and unnatural one His philosophy of life is certainly that of the materialist but he forgets that that philosophy is an inconsistent and misleading one

The Wall street stockbroker may for the sake of example be taken as the type In one sense he is as materialistic as it is possible for a man to become but he forgets that it is as impossible for him to get away from the ideal as it is for him to live without air He lives in an atmosphere of unnatural excitement of morbid feverish unrest All of his waking hours are spent in unceasing anxiety about futures and options and the chances of the call board In other words it is a life of the most intense and absolute idealism not a calm contemplative philosophy like that of the Greeks but an ideal philosophy just as truly being material or practical only in its results His every thought is occupied and centered on the material as both a means and an end but the philosophy is ideal and the far reaching secondary results are far from practical and pernicious in the extreme

It is understood full well to-day that neither idealism nor realism can stand alone They are and must of necessity be interdependent but few people realize the fact that they may by following one system as their guiding star without reference to the other come out at a diametrically opposite point from that which they had expected, and most frequently they are not undeceived until the end The miser the epicurean the glutton and the sensualist each and all are idealists in this sense They feed, not so much on the gratification of their desires as upon their contemplations and aims and hopes and retrospects concerning them

The quiet home life of rural communities is sneered at and scorned by the proud denizen of the city, but the peaceful contentment of the one is not to be compared with the feverish unrest of the other In this fast age a great mistake is being made by a great majority of the young men The peace and joy of a quiet country home will outweigh the pleasures of the anxious and bored millionaire What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul

SECRET POLITICAL SOCIETIES.

The revelations which have been made concerning the operations of the Clan na Gael have put many foreign born citizens to thinking The press and the pulpit have been outspoken in condemnation of any and all secret oath bound societies whose object is to meddle in political affairs, and especially in the concerns of foreign nations The Rev Robert McIntyre an American of foreign birth, preached a sermon in Grace M E church Chicago in which he gave his congregation some very sensible advice

The three great gifts which the United States bestows upon all her invited guests are liberty equality and fraternity The three requirements exacted in return are loyalty, fraternity and freedom from political secrecy In other words any foreign born citizen may come and partake freely of all our political and civil advantages but he is bound in good faith to obey our laws uphold our institutions and give loyal support to the government Here he can have liberty of thought and freedom of action—engage in any legitimate pursuit for the advancement of his interests and the promotion of his happiness—and all that is expected of him is that he shall become one with us in citizenship and patriotic purpose

This was the substance of the foreign born clergyman's remarks and a better creed could not be formed Those who come here from foreign lands make a great mistake when they bring with them their old quarrels and feuds These should all be left to die out in the land in which they had their origin. Here there should be no such distinction as Irish Americans, Scottish Americans, German-Americans or British-Americans, but all should be lost in the simple American citizen who should hold himself aloof from every organization calculated to antagonize the laws or embarrass the government

OUR MINISTER TO GERMANY

William Walter Phelps who a recent diplomatic world is a member of the Samoan conference has secured to him the appointment of minister to Germany as a reward for the service which he rendered the country and the administration in that capacity has been a remarkably successful man considering the time during which he has been [illegible] and the fact that he has not quite reached his fiftieth anniversary His birth He is a native of New York city and a graduate of Yale and of the Columbia college law school which he left in 18[illegible] After practicing law until 1868 and refusing a judgeship [illegible] to take an active part in politics and in 1872 was elected a representative to the Forty third congress Two years later he was defeated by seven votes for re-election He was chosen to the Forty eighth, Forty ninth and fiftieth congresses and made an [illegible] record

He has also been very successful in business having large interests in railways and other enterprises and he has always been a close personal and political [illegible] relation with Mr Blaine [illegible] After the election of President Garfield Mr Phelps was appointed minister to Austria but resigned the post the following year Since he has [illegible] his present [illegible] [illegible] parliament

[illegible] one of Germany who was the English princess royal She is the young woman who was to marry Alexander of Battenberg a few months ago when Bismarck interfered and forbade the banns because of the displeasure with which Russia regarded the attempt of the prince to become ruler of Bulgaria She is now to marry her cousin of Wales heir apparent to the British throne a young lady who trains in corsets and wears high collars to conceal the defect of an unusually long neck The plan of doubling up on the grandchildren of the queen by intermarriage though a physiological mistake is a stroke of economy which the overwearied British taxpayers should appreciate since by this method one setting out will do for two

Asylums for the insane in Pennsylvania Indiana Illinois Massachusetts and North Carolina have been rigidly investigated and it has been found that in each state there is one of these institutions in which helpless creatures have been cruelly [illegible] and in some instances [illegible] treated The discovery of this evil has enlisted the sympathy of all classes and has called to the question of the treatment of the insane the best intelligence of the country There is no doubt but that experience has demonstrated the possibility of ministering to the diseased mind by scientific and intelligent treatment in many cases and the public discussion of this subject may at least drive out from asylums for the insane those who are brutal [illegible] to the commission of outrages upon nature's unfortunates

The first free school in the world was established 250 years ago at Dorchester Massachusetts and since that time popular education has advanced with steady strides in the United States In a century year from 1776 to 1876 the colleges had increased from seven to 3[illegible] When the independence of our country was declared [illegible] common schools were not only few but very inferior A century later [illegible] children attended the public schools and from 1876 to 1888 that number has been still further increased to 10,013,826 This system of universal education is going to do great work in the suppression of partisan strife

The Philadelphia Bulletin says The people of Ellensburgh in the new state of Washington who have just lost ten blocks of houses worth $1,000,000 will not be in so much of a hurry next year to celebrate the Fourth of July in the old fashioned way The New York World falls into a similar error The fire that visited our unfortunate neighbor was not in any way connected with a celebration of the Fourth of July The real origin of the fire is shrouded in mystery but it is thought to have been the work of men who have made similar attempts to burn down other cities in this part of the country

The superintendent of streets would be doing the public a great service if he would turn his attention to the condition of sidewalks in many parts of the city Protruding nails make walking dangerous to apparel as well as to limb and rotten timbers provide a cause for dangerous accident This matter needs prompt attention or it is more than likely the city will have some damage suits to defend in the courts

The recent railroad disaster in Virginia shows the imperative necessity of rigid track inspection It is a mistake to harass railroad enterprise with vexatious legislation yet the law cannot be made that will be too severe upon railroad officials who neglect this important duty A corporation owes the same duty toward the protection of its patrons as does a private individual

Collections are so much in the fashion now that one will have to be taken up for millionaire John Mackay In San Francisco his personal property was assessed at $8,000 and he has made application to have the amount reduced to $5000 If they keep up this sort of thing in California how is Mrs Mackay going to be able to entertain princes and dukes abroad

Lord Tennyson is at work upon a poem for which he is to receive £1000 His first poem sold it is said for 10 shillings a statement that illustrates well the difference between market value and intrinsic worth since doubtless, the first effort was much the more meritorious

CANADIAN GOVERNMENTAL SALARIES.

The governor general of Canada gets $81 600 the lieutenant governor gets $10,000 the lieutenant governor of Ontario receives $10,000 the same officer in Manitoba accepts $10,000 for doing nothing and like officers in Nova Scotia New Brunswick and the Northwest territories each get $9000 and in Prince Edward Island and British Columbia they receive $7000 each Ottawa has one minister at $8000 and twelve at $7000 each Toronto supports one at $5000 and six more at $4000 Then comes the pay of the great body of legislators who have little to do except meet at the clubs and have a good time generally The total sum in salaries amounts to $81,512 for 746 politicians who serve on an average about sixty days out of each year This together with the thousand and one expenses in messengers servants mileage and incidentals will bring up the annual expense to about $3,000,000

Helena Expects Villard to Build a Hotel— The Bee Industry—Etc.

HELENA July 12— During the recent visit of Henry Villard to Helena ex-Gov [illegible] Hauser asked him what he thought of building a large hotel of metropolitan style now that he had [illegible] his important [illegible] his efforts and influence [illegible] was better pleased with the city [illegible] his first visit, and would be [illegible] than he was before to assist in building [illegible] the citizens were ready to undertake the enterprise he would be ready and willing [illegible] assistance As soon as Helena capitalists will come together on this hotel proposition they will not lack substantial encouragement from the railroad magnate A first class hotel is daily becoming one of the crying needs of Helena

BREAKFAST TABLE READING.

The Plaza Blocks Should Be Cleared of Loafers, Tramps and Bums.

Grand Lodge A. O. U. W.—A Priest's Vacation—Company Inspected—Clearing House—Short Salmon Catch—Beats Changed—Etc

Here You Are, Chief Parrish.—There is one thing that Portland's well fed, well dressed police should do, "dontcherknow," and that is to clean out the bums and beggars who make the city parks a lounging place in the day time. Every seat in the sward is occupied by greasy looking fellows, of filthy personal habits, many of them crawling with vermin, who while away the long hours by stretching themselves on the grass or by sleeping, while at night they go forth and beg. A number of the little girls who live in the neighborhood make the plaza their play ground, and very frequently they are approached by the [illegible] tolerate. In cities where scrubs the police do the [illegible] days in the year instead of peddling political tickets one day in the year, and preparing for the election contest these bummers are compelled to move along and are not allowed to infect their unsavory presence in pleasure grounds set aside for the permanent inhabitants of a city.

Hypnotism by the Phonograph.—The phonograph, in the hands of a celebrated French doctor, has done good service in throwing light upon that curious condition called hypnotism, a kind of sleep or somnambulism said to be produced by animal magnetism, which ever since the early experiments of Mesmer has puzzled the thoughtful and been a fruitful source of wonder to the credulous. It has been found that hypnotic patients obey directions conveyed to them mechanically by the phonograph as readily as they will obey the living words of the professor. From this it is concluded that mesmerism, animal magnetism—[illegible] the theory of animal magnetism from the operator [illegible] current passing from the operator [illegible] subject, is entirely baseless. The real cause of hypnotism is a disturbed or abnormal mental state.

A Priest's Well-Earned Vacation.—Father Croquet, who has been missionary on the Grand Ronde reservation since 1859, with the exception of one year that he was stationed at [illegible], left for Belgium on a visit. Father Croquet is a great favorite with the Indians and [illegible] speak of him that he shares his [illegible] with them. Many times he has left [illegible] well dressed and on his return he has presented the appearance of the last tramp of summer. He left walking the railroad track. He was [illegible] out when he left Portland and if he does not [illegible] the reservation between here and Belgium the Indians are he will arrive home looking like an American citizen.

Grand Lodge Has Adjourned.—The new officers of the Grand Lodge A. O. U. W. were installed yesterday and the Grand Lodge adjourned sine die at 5:30. A proposed new constitution was perfected. The greater portion of the work upon it was done by W. D. Hare of Washington county. The constitution will not go into effect until it is adopted by the Grand Lodge, which meets next year, and is approved by the supreme master workman. Reports submitted during the session just ended showed the membership of the order in Oregon, Washington and British Columbia to be [illegible], an increase of 500 over last year.

A Pleasant Excursion Party.—There was a very pleasant excursion party yesterday afternoon and evening over the Portland & Vancouver railway line. The outing party was given under the auspices of Mrs. Frank Dekum and Mrs. R. L. Durham. There were about forty persons in the party. The party left East Portland at 3 o'clock in a special car, and were side tracked at Hoove's Landing. Seventeen of the party crossed the Columbia and spent some time in Vancouver very pleasantly. There was an abundant lunch spread late in the afternoon which was enjoyed by all. After a very pleasant time the excursion party returned to the city about 10 o'clock last evening.

Shortage in the Salmon Pack.—Fish Commissioner Thompson has figured it out that the salmon pack on the lower Columbia for the season up to date amounts to 200,000 cases, a shortage of 50,000 cases compared with the same time last year. The run of fish has been and continues to be poor. The water being clear the gill nets are catching but few fish, the traps doing most of the catching. The commissioner says the law prohibiting the taking of salmon Saturday night and Sunday is being violated and the commissioner intends to establish river patrols and put a stop to the law breaking.

New Fangled Gong.—The latest style of call bell for the table is a small gong suspended in a frame on brackets, in which is supported a small club for striking the gong. It will be the correct thing for families where Chinese servants are employed, as a gong makes music which has charms to soothe the savage breast of the Mongolian. A number of these gongs were being unpacked in a crockery store yesterday when one of the [illegible] came along and asked what they were [illegible] by "I have been fifteen years in the [illegible] business but have never seen anything like this."

Installation of Officers.—The following officers of Hassalo lodge No. 15, I. O. O. F. were installed last evening by Deputy District Grand Master Horace Smith: W. H. Grindstaff, N. G.; John Alexander, V. G.; William J. Shipley, secretary; James Cumming, treasurer; A. W. Culver, W.; Daniel Harvey, C.; E. B. Madden, I. G.; J. W. Eller, O. G.; D. W. Crandall, R. S. N. G.; R. C. Warner, L. S. N. G.; A. N. Gambell, R. S. V. G.; S. R. Cobb, L. S. V. G.; R. H. Klippel, R. S. S.; R. J. Stewart, L. S. S.

Saturday Sale at J. Selling & Co's.—First of all there will be a ribbon sale, 75c sash ribbons at 25c; No. 16, 20c; No. 12, 15c; No. 9, 12½c; No. 7, 10c; No. 5, 8c. These ribbons are satin, moire and flat edge, all silk. Next the Eclipse fast black ladies hose at 25c. The sale of bed spreads for the beach continues—85c, 95c, $1 25 and $1 45. Bathing towels 12½c, 25c, 40c and 50c. Our 50c silk mitts at 25c. Oregon City suits for men $10, $11 and $12. Men's straw hats 25c, 50c, 75c and $1. J Selling & Co.

Clearing House to Begin Business.—The clearing house will begin business at 11 A. M. Monday in its quarters in the rear of Northwest Loan office, at No. 50 First street. Clearances will be made at 1 P. M. daily, except Saturday, when the hour will be noon. A number of the clerks and messengers of the different banks met at the clearing house yesterday afternoon and went through a form of dummy clearance to familiarize themselves with the details of the business.

Away They Went!—John Carborina, a vegetable peddler, left his team standing on Second street near Market yesterday, and the pampered brutes ran away down Second street. They made a touch-and-go of it with several vehicles on the way without doing any serious damage, but at Yamhill ran against a lamppost, knocking it into flinders. Carborina was arrested for permitting his horses to stand on the streets unhitched, and will probably have to pay for the lamp post.

It Was a Sappy Plank.—Mr. Fliedner, chairman of the committee on streets, yesterday examined the Front street bridge across Marquam's gulch, and finds that the cause of the horse breaking through was a sappy plank. Specifications for such work call for plank free from sap but some such get in occasionally it seems. With the exception of an occasional plank of this kind the bridge is safe enough, but probably another covering of plank will be put on.

An Oregon Woman Missing.—Mrs. Noyes, of The Dalles, Or., is missing, says the Tacoma Ledger. Her son is in Tacoma looking for her, and with the aid of Chief of Police Chesney hopes to locate her. Mrs. Noyes was in Portland headed towards the Sound on July [illegible]. Mr. Noyes has not heard of his mother since. The old lady was accustomed to travel and her disappearance is to her son a great mystery.

First Proofs Being Printed.—The first proofs of the History of the Pacific Northwest, now being printed by Crocker & Co. of San Francisco, have been received by the North Pacific History Company of this city. Judging from these specimen pages of the work, the books will present a beautiful appearance. It is expected that the work will be ready for delivery in ninety days.

Hospital for the Home.—The small hospital being built at the Children's Home for the accommodation of the little ones whenever any of them are taken with a contagious disease, is nearly completed. The building is entirely up and has already been given a coat of paint. The windows will be put in in a few days, and the interior finishings will also be completed in a short time.

Another Donation.—The India Packing Company have sent direct to the Ellensburgh sufferers one and a half gross of their chemically pure cream tartar and soda baking powder, which was worth about $30. In mentions heretofore made of those who have made cash or other donations to the Ellensburgh sufferers the name of the firm given has been inadvertently omitted.

Fall or Sea Trout.—A lot of the handsome fall or sea trout were received here yesterday. They were beauties but each of them had a mark which showed that it had been caught in a net. These trout did not come into market last year till a month later than this. A number of things are earlier this year than usual and it may be that the rains will come on earlier.

Ordered to Fort Klamath.—Under date of July 8 General Gibbon has issued the following order: Major Samuel S. Sumner, Eighth cavalry, acting inspector general, will proceed to Fort Klamath and make the annual inspection of that post, required by paragraph 954, army regulations, 1889. Upon completion of this duty he will rejoin his proper station.

Will Sail for Alaska.—Rev. C. F. Cline, pastor of St. Paul's M. E. church, will sail for Alaska Monday next, on the steamer Ancon. Mr. Cline goes as a naturalist, in behalf of the Central Christian Advocate at St. Louis, and the Western Christian Advocate, Cincinnati. Charles Francis Adams and other distinguished parties from the East are in the company.

Back From the Coast.—Councilman Castendieck returned yesterday from the seaside looking the brown and hearty. He says the weather is delightful, the fare and accommodations good and there is nothing to complain of except the transportation facilities, and everyone expects that will be all right when the Potter gets running.

Will Go to Jail.—Officer J. T. Green, of San Francisco left with his prisoner, Alice Deshon, the courtesan who is wanted at that place for jumping her bail on a charge of keeping a disreputable house, on the 4 o'clock train yesterday afternoon. Miss Deshon will be delivered up to the authorities, and Alfred Clarke, her anxious bondsman, will be able to recover the cash he put up for her appearance.

No Place Like Portland.—Mr. William Hahn, president of the Portland Mercantile Corporation, arrived on the steamer State of California after an absence of three weeks visiting relatives in California. Mr. Hahn had a pleasant visit and has greatly improved in health, but thinks there is no place like Portland, Oregon.

Change of Patrol Beats.—Yesterday was another off day with the police force. There was a change of business all around. Every officer had his beat changed, and it will yet be several days before they accustom themselves to their new rounds. The change is made to promote the efficiency of the force.

Funeral of John Zimmerli.—The body of John Zimmerli, who was killed in a fall from the new Portland hotel, is at the undertaking rooms of George H. Rivers, from which place the funeral will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. The remains will be interred in Lone Fir cemetery.

$2 Cabinet Photographs.—To-day and to-morrow only at Professor Eastman's Rustic gallery on N street between Fourth and Fifth. The professor, who is there in person, reports a big success yesterday, and he wants his friends to call early this morning to avoid the big rush.

Saloon Keepers.—Ouis & Summers have on exhibition at their store, 18 First street, an elegant beer cooler for keeping beer on tap, and it is spoken very highly of by all who know the value of these coolers. Call and see for yourselves.

Still They Come.—Cash donations to the Ellensburgh sufferers still continue coming in to The Oregonian office. Mr. H. F. [illegible] left at this office $10 in coin, which will at once be forwarded to its destination.

For Bars—Ouis & Summers have one [illegible] for sale [illegible] the whole [illegible] at [illegible] 18 First street, Portland, Oregon.

To Look for the Pettits.—Total Inspector [illegible] has sent [illegible] inspectors to come out to [illegible] for the [illegible] who committed [illegible] robbery a few days since.

Still After Mrs. Walters.—The [illegible] officers who came here to arrest Mrs. Lizzie Walters for murder believe that the woman is hiding somewhere in Portland, and are still in town.

Palatina Leased.—Mayor DeLashmutt has leased his mare Palatina to Joseph W. [illegible] and Alexander Lewis, of Montana. Palatina will trot in the Montana races this summer.

No School Board Meeting.—The school board did not hold a meeting last night, there being no quorum present. This is the first time this has occurred in nearly five years.

Company H Inspected.—Adjutant George F. Telfer and Quartermaster W. I. Sherman, O. N. G., are in Astoria inspecting Company H. They are expected home this morning.

The New Schedule.—On the Portland & Vancouver railway goes into effect next Sunday. Trains from 6 A. M. to 10 45 P. M. See card in Daily Oregonian.

A. B. Steinbach & Co's sidewalk is somewhat blockaded, but remember our tables are still full of choice suits at the greatest bargains ever offered in Portland.

Given Up Fishing.—The wheels at the Cascades have given up fishing except a scow wheel or two which are not catching enough fish to make axle grease.

A. B. Steinbach & Co.—Grand renovating sale is in full blast. By calling on us you can save money.

Cabinet Photographs $2 per dozen at Watson's, 245 First street, Friday and Saturday only.

A Party Organized to Scale Mounts Adams and St. Helens.

Who Are Going—Their Equipment—The Ice Caves Will Be Explored—Metal Boxes for Records—Scout and Pack Horses

The party organized to illuminate Mounts Hood, St. Helens and Rainier on July 4, abandoned their project out of consideration for the sufferers from the Seattle fire. The funds that were to have been expended in red fire and other illuminating material were sent to the destitute and needy at Seattle. The happy anticipations of scaling the snow capped Cascades with patriotic fervor and Alpen stocks, were exchanged for sympathy and condolence for those unfortunates who had their fireworks and illumination before the appointed time.

Since then, however, efforts have been made to organize another party to make the ascent of Mount Adams and Mount St. Helens. The leading spirit in this undertaking has been W. G. Steel, the secretary of the Oregon Alpine Club, and through his persistent efforts and several other members of the club such a project has assumed definite shape.

The party was organized several days since and their names would have been made public before this were it not for the uncertainty as to whether one or two of them will be able to get off. The party is to be composed of M. W. Gorman, F. H. Dewert, O. C. Yocum, Tom Marquam, Prof. W. A. Wetzel, W. G. Steel, C. [illegible] and [illegible] of Portland, and [illegible] and A. C. Warner of Seattle. There is a probability that one or two of the number may [illegible] less than eight [illegible].

The [illegible] [illegible] from which [illegible] will be met by [illegible] the government [illegible] with [illegible].

The mountaineers will be well equipped for the trip. They will take with them a [illegible] for making signals, fishing tackle and [illegible] portable [illegible] and [illegible] with them keen appetites and a burning thirst for knowledge, scientific research as it were.

A metallic box containing a record book will be placed upon the topmost peak of both mountains. The Alpine Club already have such boxes on Mount Hood and Mount Shasta, in California, and the intention is to keep a systematic record of all trips made to the summit of these mountains, whether for pleasure or scientific research.

The party will also be well equipped with photographic outfits, and views will be taken of every picturesque spot met with on the journey. Camera views will be taken by Towne, Warner, Yocum, Steel and Dewert.

No difficulty is anticipated in making the ascents. The ice caves south of Mount Adams will be thoroughly explored, and it is probable that an ice claim will be staked out. Here the party will take numerous views and rusticate in blissful frigidity. Short stops will be made at Trout and Mirror lakes.

The party expect to be gone from two to three weeks.

THAT MURDER AT SEA.

Testimony in the Drouillard Trial Reviewed at Length.

Mr Seneca Smith Asserts That a Careful Investigation Such as a Jury Would Make Will Not Show Deliberate Murder.

PORTLAND, July 9.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

In the issues of THE OREGONIAN of June 29 and 30 appear two articles in reference to the trial of John Drouillard for the killing of Petro Riberos on the steamer Corona in March last, containing some very severe strictures upon the jury who sat in the case and in which such of the testimony as is given is not only misstated but great injustice is done to the jury as well as to the defendant himself. It is true as stated in the articles referred to that the fireman Thompson testified that Drouillard used abusive language to the deceased before the affray and that Riberos was sober at the time, but no unprejudiced person could have listened to the whole testimony and have come to any other conclusion than that his testimony was false as to both these facts. Trainor, the other fireman and who was also a witness for the state, heard no abusive language used by Drouillard although he was in the fire room during the whole time and could not have been more than six or eight feet from the defendant when the words were said to have been uttered and the affray took place.

True, he claimed that he was at work at the coal bunker at the time and paying no attention to what was going on, but it is extremely unlikely that he would not have heard all that was said in angry altercation between these men, as the room in which all four of them were, according to the greatest dimensions given by any witness, was not more than nine by thirteen feet, and the altercation and affray took place about the middle of the room.

Drouillard testified that Riberos was drinking and insolent, and the second assistant engineer corroborated him in this, testifying that when he went to look Riberos up at the request of the defendant he found him in the fireman's room, in the forecastle, with a bottle to his mouth, and that he was intoxicated, though not sufficiently to incapacitate him from doing his work. Drouillard also testified that when the deceased started toward him, the instant before the affray occurred, he, the deceased, called the defendant a d—d son of a b—h.

The witness Thompson, who is called "the only reliable witness" in the article referred to, denies that Riberos used any such language, but the second assistant engineer corroborates the defendant's statement about this, and swears that as he was passing out between the boilers from the fireroom an instant before the fight occurred he heard the deceased use the language just referred to.

Thompson, the "reliable witness," also testified that the deceased held the defendant by the coat collar while the fight was going on, while in his testimony taken in writing before the coroner's jury he stated that Riberos had the defendant by the throat, and the foreman of the coroner's jury also swore that Thompson testified before the coroner that Riberos had defendant by the throat during the fight.

The testimony of all the witnesses showed that the deceased was neglecting his duty and absolutely refused to trim the lamps in the fire room when ordered to do so by defendant, that defendant went at least twice and probably three times on deck to his superior officers telling them that Riberos was drunk and he could get nothing out of him, and asking the second assistant engineer to come down and see what he could do with him, which the second assistant finally did, and that the affray occurred the moment the second assistant left the fire room. Thompson himself, while he testified that he could not tell which one struck first, swore that when the second assistant left the room Riberos dropped a lamp he was cleaning and, saying "I won't be sworn at like a Chinaman," walked directly to where the defendant was standing with one foot on the keelson, and they at once clinched, the defendant not advancing at all, and in this much corroborating the statement of the defendant that Riberos attacked him.

The defendant, the second assistant engineer, and the foreman of the coroner's jury all testified that Riberos was a tall, broad-shouldered, powerful man, a Chilian, weighing 180 pounds or more, and 22 or 23 years of age, while the defendant is past 40 years old and weighs never as much as 130 pounds, and it appeared he was quite weak at the time of the occurrence from several days illness.

It appeared further that Riberos and the defendant were entire strangers to each other and never met until within about an hour before the tragedy was enacted.

The testimony of both the firemen as well as the defendant agreed that the room in which the fight occurred was quite dark at the time, instead of brilliantly lighted as stated in the articles referred to, though Thompson testified that there was sufficient light for him to see that Riberos had no weapon in his hand.

The defendant testified that the room was so dark that he could not see the water in the gauges without great difficulty, and then only when the oscillations of the ship caused the water to move; that when the deceased advanced upon him he used the abusive language before referred to and testified to by the second assistant engineer, and further said "I will knock your brains out."

That the instant before the deceased struck him a flash of light from the ash pan revealed some black object a couple of inches in diameter in the deceased's right hand, which looked like a piece of iron, and which struck him at the moment, as being probably a hexagonal nut. That he would then have run and made his escape could he have done so with safety, but as he had no means of egress excepting through the narrow passage between the boilers, and would be compelled to pass Riberos to reach this, he thought his only means of safety was to defend himself with whatever weapon was available, which was his pocket knife; that he took this out and opened it, the next instant the deceased struck him in the mouth, cutting open his lip, and then seized him around the neck as before stated.

That being nearly strangled by deceased he thought the only means of preserving his life was to cut himself loose, and that he struck with the knife as fast as he could, and that as soon as deceased loosed his hold of him he jerked away and ran.

The knife was in testimony and was shown by witnesses who had worked with defendant before to be a knife he had carried for years; a large, pearl handled pocket knife such as was shown is usually carried by engineers, and is used for cutting packing and for other purposes in their business. It had but one large blade instead of four as stated in THE OREGONIAN, which blade was worn nearly half into by long use and was quite dull, instead of being the keen blood thirsty instrument described in the articles referred to.

Mr Hume, the master mechanic of the O P R R, Captain Richards, captain of the bar tug at Yaquina, and the fireman on said tug all came to the trial from Yaquina voluntarily and at their own expense, to testify to the character of the defendant, and all testified that they knew him intimately; that he was employed by Mr Hume from August 1888 to March 15 of this year as chief engineer on the said tug; that Captain Richards was captain of the tug during the time defendant was on her, and the fireman worked under him during all said time, and all testified to the geniality and amiability of the defendant's character, and all testified that when defendant left Yaquina it was a matter of general regret that he was compelled to leave the place, and that it was the subject of general remark among the best citizens of the place that they were sorry to lose him. Mr Goswick, who worked with defendant as engineer on the steamer Umatilla for twenty two months, testified that he had known defendant for about eight years; that he was the defendant's superior officer on the Umatilla, the defendant beginning on said steamer as oiler, was afterward promoted to the position of third assistant engineer; that they were together constantly during this time and that the defendant was well liked by all on board, not only by his subordinates, but by his superior officers. That he also worked under defendant at the Oakland Iron Works in California, that defendant was exceptionally kind and considerate with all with whom he came in contact, and the witness never saw him or heard of his abusing or tyrannizing over a subordinate during all of the time he had known him.

The witness Thompson was shown by his own testimony to have been a friend of the deceased of long standing, and it was at the suggestion and invitation of Riberos that Thompson sought and obtained his place upon the ship for the voyage upon which the tragedy occurred, and this will account in some sense at least, for the interest manifested by Thompson in attempting to secure the conviction of the defendant.

It is true the defendant was a witness and an interested one in his own behalf, and the law has very wisely provided that he should be. While a person on trial for his life has the largest possible interest in making a good case for himself, it does not follow that his testimony is necessarily false. He is subjected to cross examination, and the jury is always cautioned by the court, as was done in this case, that the fact of defendant's interest should be taken into consideration in weighing the value of his testimony, and it not infrequently occurs that his appearance, manner of testifying and the intrinsic probability of the story he tells justly outweighs the testimony of other witnesses who apparently have no personal interest in the matter in controversy. In this case the defendant's testimony was not only sustained by these things and a previous unblemished character, but it was corroborated by so many circumstances and by the testimony of other witnesses of high standing that it was the subject of general remark when the jury retired, by those in the court room who had seen the trial, that no verdict but not guilty was possible.

The jury was an exceptionally fine one, composed of leading farmers and business men from various parts of the state, and they might well be supposed to be at least as capable of weighing the testimony and arriving at a fair and just conclusion from it as the newspaper reporters who are employed to collect that character of news.

I assisted in the defense at the trial, but it is ended, the defendant has been discharged, I have no further personal interest in the matter, and only write this that it may not be supposed in localities where the jurors are not personally known that they violated their oaths or failed to discharge their duties as good citizens.

The testimony was all taken down by a stenographic reporter sworn in by the court, and is subject to the inspection of any one who chooses to examine it.

SENECA SMITH

DR M'DOW IS STILL POPULAR.

His "Little Indiscretion" Does Not Seem to Have Affected His Social Standing.

A special from Charleston, S C, to the Chicago Tribune says: If anybody thinks that Dr McDow, who killed Editor Dawson, has lost any prestige in Charleston among his patients and his aristocratic friends he is mistaken. After his release from the jail yesterday afternoon he was followed to his residence by hundreds of black admirers. At night he held a reception at his residence. A reporter who interviewed him reports the doctor as saying, in reply to the question whether he intended to live in Charleston: "O yes. I've the largest practice of any young physician in the city, in fact, a lucrative practice, and I know that my patients will excuse my little indiscretion."

This morning he attended services at St John's, the aristocratic Lutheran church in Charleston. He was accompanied by his father in law and his little daughter, and after the services he was quite overwhelmed with congratulations from his lady friends and patients.

MORMONS ARRESTED.

The People of Tuscola, Ills, Excited Over Their Workings.

TUSCOLA, Ills, July 12.—This city is excited over the workings of a band of Mormons. They have been holding meetings for six weeks and have made many converts. Yesterday five members of the band were arrested for holding boisterous meetings up to 2 o'clock A. M. They will be given a hearing Monday.

A BOLD HIGHWAYMAN.

He Makes an Unsuccessful Attempt to Rob a Stage.

RED BLUFF, Cal, July 12.—A masked highwayman attempted to rob the stage which runs from here to Champion Mill, this morning, at a place about eight miles from town. The driver whipped his team into a run and the robber fired a pistol, slightly wounding one of the horses. The driver had $800 on the stage. Officers are searching for the robber.

THEY MUST GO BACK.

Immigrants for the Pacific Coast to Be Returned to Europe.

NEW YORK, July 12.—Secretary of the Treasury Windom this morning approved the course of the immigrant commissioners in detaining the immigrants sent Agent Neil, of the Southern Pacific railroad, by Wrightson, of London, and ordered the immediate return of every man sent Agent Neil, under the law prohibiting the importation of contract laborers.

Convicted by the Clock.

A lady from Ithaca, the birthplace of ex Governor Cornell and his wife, told me yesterday, says a New York letter, a good story apropos of the perils of wedded life, which the governor told at his own expense. It seems that when in office at Albany he would sometimes return home late at night after his wife had retired, and when she asked him what time it was would answer "About 12" or "a little after midnight." One evening, instead of making the inquiry, she said "Alonzo, I wish you would stop that clock, I cannot sleep for its noise." All unsuspicious he stopped the pendulum. In the morning, while dressing, Mrs Cornell inquired artlessly "Oh by the way, what time did you get home?" "About midnight," replied the governor. "Alonzo, look at that clock!" The hands of the clock pointed to 2 30. The governor was crushed.

Stopped the Paper.

"Vell, Mister Bitters don't vant to take dot paper no more. He vos dedt last nide alreddy." The name of the late Mr Bitters, a cattle dealer, was duly erased from the delivery sheet.

NEW STATE SCHOOL LANDS.

One of the Most Important Questions To Be Considered at Olympia.

The Constitution Adopted by South Dakota Considered to Contain the Best Provisions on This Subject.

CHEMAWA, Or., July 11, 1889.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

While there are many important questions before the constitutional convention at Olympia and questions that will grow in magnitude as the session and the discussions advance, none will surpass in permanent interest that relating to the school lands.

It has been my duty for many years to study the history of the grants of lands by the United States for the support of schools in various states. While I was superintendent of public instruction several terms in Dakota that issue advanced in importance and was widely and ably discussed in the press and on the platform. Many members of the convention of 1885 which drafted the Sioux Falls constitution, recently adopted a second time by South Dakota, were chosen on that issue. The able committee and the convention studied it with care and debated it with ability. The committee had before it every constitutional provision and amendment in the United States on the subject of schools and lands. It was prior thereto made by law the duty of the superintendent to study the matter and to visit the Northwestern states to learn the history and experience relating to it. So he visited Lincoln, Des Moines, St Paul, Springfield, Indianapolis, Lansing and other capitals and consulted all who could wisely advise. Defects and advantages were alike sought. He acted as volunteer clerk of the committee, and with perfect unanimity of committee and convention the article on "Education and School Lands" in that instrument was adopted. That was the center of strength for the instrument before the people.

I cannot here quote those provisions. But they are accessible to the Olympia convention. They are the best so far adopted in the United States, and every clause was put in them to meet a need developed plainly in the experience of one or more of the public land states. After all other guards were placed around the appraisement and sale of the lands it was finally added that no sale should convey any title until after sixty days from the sale, and not then unless approved by the governor. This was because it was found in Nebraska and elsewhere that even when lands were sold above the minimum they were often sold at not above half their value. Yet when discovered no one had power to cancel or annul the sale. The fraud was often discovered soon, but the title had passed or the right thereto had legally vested in the highest bidder. Therefore, the legislation in the constitution to prevent all possible opportunity for success of fraud. In reference to education and lands, as well as other subjects, this tendency to legislate in the constitution has increased, and many of the best features of late constitutions like those of Pennsylvania, Illinois and other states are of this nature.

The history of the disposition of school lands in the states is not one for state pride anywhere. In the five states formed from the original Northwest territory they were largely wasted. Ohio received but little money from hers. Indiana's $10,000,000 school fund came largely from other sources. The report of the state superintendent of Michigan for 1875 gives a history of the bad management in that state of the common school lands, as compared with the superior methods applied to the university lands, which have helped create the great university at Ann Arbor. In Wisconsin much of the history is shameful. In Iowa it is some better, and in Minnesota it is very fair. The state of California sold by legislative enactment a great body of its school lands for a small sum in depreciated state scrip. Oregon has no great occasion for pride in its school land history. In Ohio and Indiana the several townships secured the land within them. Later it became distinctly a state grant and the fund a single state fund. So it is now with all new states.

The institution of public schools is purely a state matter under general laws, and no special legislation should be permitted. The constitution should establish and require the legislature to "maintain a general and uniform system of public schools, wherein tuition shall be free, and equally open to all the children of the state." This being so, it should deny any and every form of local control of the sale of the lands and the direction of the resulting funds. The state as such receives them as a trust which it must execute for the equal benefit of all. To certainly accomplish this, the definite outlines and fundamental principles of the whole system must be declared in the constitution and not left to the changing temper of legislatures.

There is hardly space to discuss another point: Should the school lands be sold or leased? Careful as the Sioux Falls constitution was in limiting the method of sales, a powerful sentiment has since developed in favor of retaining the title in the state and deriving the revenue from long leases.

The argument for this is strong. It is fully sustained by the principles of the last address in Portland by Hon Thomas G Shearman. All single tax men should support it by parity of reasoning. If the enterprise of all gives the value or rental worth of real property, especially will the enterprise of all increase the value or rental of these lands as it has done. They are set apart for the good of all forever. Let their ownership and gain so continue. If property increases faster than population so does rental value increase faster than property. Rental values will steadily increase, and therefore will keep even with the school needs of increasing population. But rates of interest decrease. The more rapidly created, a small school fund may seem a timely aid, but its proportionate value will decrease. Not so with rents, which will increase part passu with school needs. It will grow faster. In fifty years every one of the new states would have a full school system without a dollar's tax. The lands should be leased for long terms, say twenty five years, as long as one generation requires a farm. The rent should be paid two years in advance. Leases should be property that could be sold and inherited. The land should be released at least one year before the close of the term to enable occupant to release, to sell improvements to successor or to remove them. The state should never own the improvements. Rents should be revised every five years under general law. The entire scheme is feasible and practical, and the only safe security for the great fund. The principal could never be lost.

Scaly Skin Diseases

Think of shedding a quart of scales each day, of a skin cracked, bleeding, burning, and itching, almost beyond human endurance, hair lifeless or gone, suffering hardly to be appreciated. Is not this a difficult skin and scalp disease to cure? And yet thousands of just such cases have been

Cured by Cuticura

My disease (psoriasis) first broke out on my left cheek, spreading across my nose, and almost covering my face. It ran into my eyes and the physician was afraid I would lose my eyesight altogether. It spread all over my head, and my hair all fell out, until I was entirely bald headed. It then broke out on my arms and shoulders until my arms were just one sore. It covered my entire body, my face, head and shoulders being the worst. The white scales fell constantly from my head, shoulders and arms, the skin would thicken and be red and very itchy and would crack and bleed if scratched. After spending many hundreds of dollars I was pronounced incurable. I heard of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after using two bottles of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT I could see a change, and after I had taken four bottles I was almost cured, and when I had used six bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP I was cured of the dreadful disease from which I had suffered for five years. I thought the disease would leave a very deep scar, but the CUTICURA REMEDIES cured it without any scars. I cannot express with a pen what I suffered before using the CUTICURA REMEDIES. They saved my life and I feel it my duty to recommend them. My hair is restored as good as ever, and so is my eyesight. I know of a number of different persons who have used the CUTICURA REMEDIES and all have received great benefit from their use.

MRS ROSA KELLY

Rockwell City, Calhoun Co, Iowa.

Terrible Skin Diseases

Two bottles of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, three boxes of CUTICURA, and one cake of CUTICURA SOAP, and am cured of a terrible skin and scalp disease known as psoriasis. I had it for [illegible] years. It would get better and worse at times. Sometimes my head would be a solid scab, and was at the time I began the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. My arms were covered with scabs from elbows to shoulders, my breast was almost one solid scab, and my back covered with sores varying in size from a penny to a dollar. I had doctored with all the best doctors with no relief, and used many different medicines without effect. My case was hereditary, and I began to think incurable, but it began to heal from the first application of CUTICURA.

ARCHER RUSSELL, Fisher, Ohio.

Most Wonderful Cures

I have had a most wonderful cure of salt rheum. For five years I have suffered with this disease. I had it on my head, arms and legs. I was unable to do anything whatever with my hands for over two years. I tried hundreds of remedies, and not one had the least effect. The doctor had my case was incurable. I saw your advertisement and concluded to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and incredible as it may seem after using one box of CUTICURA and two cakes of CUTICURA SOAP and two bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, I find I am entirely cured. Those who think this letter exaggerated may come and see me and find out for themselves.

Cuticura Remedies

It is one thing to claim to cure these great skin diseases but quite another thing to do it. No remedies ever compounded in the history of medicine have performed the wonderful cures daily made by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

CUTICURA, the great skin cure, instantly allays the most agonizing itching, burning and inflammation, clears the skin and scalp of crusts and scales, and restores the hair. CUTICURA SOAP, the greatest of skin beautifiers, is indispensable in treating skin diseases and baby humors. It produces the whitest, clearest skin and softest hands, free from pimple, spot or blemish. CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new blood purifier, cleanses the blood of impurities and poisonous elements, and thus removes the CAUSE. Hence the CUTICURA REMEDIES cure every species of torturing, humiliating, itching, burning, scaly and pimply diseases of the skin, scalp and blood, with loss of hair, and all humors, blotches, eruptions, sores, scales and crusts, whether simple, scrofulous or contagious.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, July 12.—The temper of the stock market underwent a sudden change to-day from buoyancy to depression, and the result is to leave everything lower than last evening. The market started off well, but quickly struck a snag. The sudden change began with the lead trust, and it appears that while there has really been no increase in the outstanding certificates of the trust, the amount is actually $33,000,000, and the surprise over the announcement led to free sales. The holders of lead trust certificates became demoralized, and over 70,000 shares changed hands in the first hour of business. The price quickly dropped from 30½ to 25½ at the close. Later in the day the sugar trust became affected and dropped from 115½ to 108¼. The weakness spread to the regular list and the grangers were the leaders in the decline. St. Paul, Atchison, Missouri Pacific and others rapidly declined, and the losses in the regular list ranged up to 3 per cent. The decline met with no setback of importance, and the market closed fairly active and decidedly weak at the lowest prices of the day.

The most important declines were: Lead 4⅝, sugar 6¾, St. Paul preferred 3, St. Paul common 2¾, cotton oil 2¼, Missouri Pacific 2¼, Chesapeake & Ohio preferred 2⅛, Burlington 1⅞, Chicago gas 1¾, Northwestern 1¾, Atchison 2, Union Pacific and Lake Shore 1¾, Canada Southern 1⅛, Northern Pacific preferred and Southern Pacific 1.

Government bonds have been dull and steady.

BAD DAY FOR ACCIDENTS.

Two Men Fall From a Railroad Trestle Nearly Ninety Feet.

Both Badly Injured—One Will Probably Die—Pitched Backward Down a Stairway—Struck on the Head—Capsized.

A woman and her son who were blackberrying in a gulch, under a bridge eighty nine feet high, the highest on the line of the Oregonian Railway Company, two and a half miles from Dundee at 6 30 yesterday, found two men lying on the cold damp ground, so badly injured that they were unable to move One, Elmer Swan, an engine wiper, 23 years old, was unconscious. His companion, Peter Boyd, 30 years old, the master mechanic of the company at Dundee, was groaning with pain. A railroad velocipede which railroad men call the "flying devil," lay across his arm and held him down. The woman first partially relieved Boyd's sufferings by lifting the velocipede off him. Then she gave the men water and sent her son to Dundee for aid.

Boyd and Swan left Dundee Thursday evening on the velocipede, for Dayton Crossing the bridge on their way home at 10.30 that night the machine jumped the track and, with the men fell to the gulch below The men fell under the velocipede when they struck the ground and were badly injured by it. Swan was unconscious all night, but Boyd, though badly hurt, was able to call for help.

The injured men were brought to this city on a special engine yesterday afternoon and taken to the Portland hospital. Boyd's left leg was broken in three places and his right in two places. Swan's upper jaw was broken, his face painfully cut, his hip injured, and it is thought he is hurt internally. Both are in a precarious condition

FELL DOWN A STAIRWAY.

Mrs. Kate Nelson met with a serious accident about 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the Grand Central hotel. She was walking up the stairs, and when she had reached nearly the top she threw up her hands and fell backwards, striking heavily on her head and shoulders. The distance was about twelve feet When picked up she was unconscious. Dr B E. Miller made a hasty examination and found that she was suffering from a severe concussion of the brain In addition to this, the left shoulder blade was broken. It is also believed that she received internal injuries, but just what they are has not yet been determined.

A gentleman who saw Mrs. Nelson fall states that, judging from her actions, he believes she was seized with a spasm She seemed to lose entire control of herself, and fell back helpless, without making any effort to regain her balance

Mrs Nelson is still unconscious, and the case is considered a serious one. At last accounts there were slight indications of improvement, though the result is yet involved in considerable doubt.

Mrs. Nelson is a large fleshy woman about 30 years of age. She resides in Portland

ANOTHER ACCIDENT AT THE HOTEL.

Yesterday afternoon John Wyland, a plumber's assistant employed on the new hotel, met with a very serious accident. He was at work in the basement and stepped outside just as one of the men who are clearing the rubbish out of the upper stories of the building threw out from the third story a window "form," a wooden frame placed in the top of a window for the bricklayers to turn the arch on This form struck Wyland on the top of the head, inflicting a very ugly scalp wound, fracturing his skull and knocking him senseless. He was taken to the Portland hospital, where his injuries were attended to Dr Rand reports that there appears to be no depression in the skull but the extent of the injury cannot be determined for a day or so At present indications are favorable for the recovery of Wyland Wyland is about 30 years of age, a Scandinavian by birth, and says he has no relatives.

THE CARRIAGE WAS UPSET

As four gentlemen were out for a drive on the Slavin road near Summit, yesterday afternoon, their carriage upset, and one of the gentlemen sustained a serious sprain of the left knee joint. The road was in very poor condition owing to the repairs being made, and the carriage, which had a heavy top toppled over without any difficulty The top or cover was broken off against the fence One of the gentlemen jumped out and held the horses by their heads before they had a chance to run away while the others slowly pulled themselves out from their uncomfortable quarters between the carriage and the fence Had the horses ran away all might have been dragged to death

"THE TWELVE TEMPTATIONS"

Something entirely out of the usual line of theatrical attractions will be offered at the New Park theater commencing Monday evening July 15, with Wednesday and Saturday matinees It will be Mr William J Gilmore's spectacle "The Twelve Temptations," a spectacular play, rewritten and arranged by Charles H Yale The story was intended by its organizer to be the greatest spectacular drama ever produced on the American stage. It was mounted and costumed it is stated, at a cost of $30,000 and it is declared by those who have seen it to fill the bill mapped out by the projector Mr William J Gilmore. "The Twelve Temptations" presents a mythical story of ice and sun Mr Yale has fashioned a tale that introduces gnomes, spirits and queens of ice and sun, the scene laid alternately in a climate cold and hot [illegible] skipping from the [illegible] chamber of old Forna past village and [illegible] through caverns of the Green Dragon [illegible] and jeweled terraces [illegible] the palace of [illegible] queen of the sun [illegible] principality in [illegible] her power [illegible] Hubert and inflames his mind with stories of treasures buried in the Arctics Remembering that eleven of his ancestors perished in the attempt to possess the treasures Hubert [illegible] but his fears are [illegible] the twelfth seeker is to be successful and he consents to [illegible] the north

THE EXPERIENCE OF FIRE

A Lady Writes Giving Some Interesting Particulars of the Great Blaze

A lady writing from [illegible] gives some interesting particulars of the great fire. She barely escaped and [illegible] her home would have gone [illegible] had occasion to [illegible] the fire at 10 30 [illegible] soon had entire control

"I went to the court [illegible] the alarm [illegible] and soon saw [illegible] so I came [illegible] ing my clothes [illegible] Lady friends came to [illegible] the [illegible] three [illegible] We soon [illegible] around our house. I took in many strangers who were staying [illegible]

"In five hours everything was [illegible] blocks were in ashes. It was the most [illegible] sight I have ever seen. My husband worked [illegible] night moving property [illegible] worse than the Seattle fire when you compare the towns My husband had his hair eyebrows and moustache singed while trying to save property in burning buildings I clothed two women who barely escaped with their lives

"So many funny things are told now the fire is over Our minister is an Irishman and boils over with wit He tells of going into a burning building to offer a poor woman help She handed him a poodle dog and he thinks he threw it at least a block. The woman saved not even a petticoat I will say the woman and dog came out all right and took refuge in my house. Mrs Schnebly, Mrs Wilson, and other ladies had not time to dress, the fire spread so rapidly

"I am afraid we were too proud of our city Snipes and Abrams feel badly the loss of their handsome stone bank. The First National bank building is one of the few that escaped The order and discipline that prevailed during the fire were something wonderful Seventy five men were patroling the streets before the fire was out, and no one was allowed in the burned district until the safes were all opened not even the merchants who owned the burned buildings. It would make your heart sick to see the ruins of so many handsome brick stores and beautiful houses."

A SHAMEFUL OUTRAGE.

The Attack of a Policeman Upon an Aged and Infirm Citizen.

An Open Letter to A. S. Frank, B. P Cardwell and Joseph Simon, Police Commissioners of This City

PORTLAND July 12

Gentlemen In your official capacity as conservators of the peace and with plenary power to see that all ordinances of this city both civil and criminal, are strictly enforced The law and order portion of this city have assembled in convention and loudly censured the management of the police department of this city, and through their executive committee have respectfully demanded, through the public press that you reorganize the police force under an efficient chief with careful and respectable subordinates to the end that good order may prevail and that citizens may feel safe in life and property within our fair city, and a good name be preserved abroad

Yes and church members have assembled and through their pastors and representatives have specially directed your attention to the death dealing blot upon the map of our city—bounded by Third, Fourth, Yamhill and Salmon streets—and have called your attention to the fact that for money, the countless hordes who subsist upon shameless practices receive immunity from arrest for their crimes and even murder is planned and committed within these described limits and no arrests made

Individual citizens as well as a portion of the public press have called your attention more than once to the infamous special police system as now conducted here and of its demoralizing effect upon the police force To all of these and those appeals the people are still resting in oblivion as to the full answer to their supplications, and demands

Gentlemen perhaps you are waiting for some statements more tangible, more specific Well, you can have it

Eight days ago to day, the writer hereof waited upon one of your members (Mr Frank) and personally informed you, "That on the 2d day of July inst, while on the public streets of the city of Portland, and alone in the peaceable pursuit of my own personal affairs I was set upon with angry words and loud threats of personal violence, even to taking of life, by a man wearing the uniform and star of a policeman of this city, known as Abe Tichenor That I refused to quarrel with said Tichenor, but demanded that he go away and leave me alone reminding him that he was a police officer He refused to do so and I left him and started across the street to my residence On reaching the middle of the street, Tichenor came, unobserved by me, running up behind and against me with full force of his velocity, struck and felled me on the crosswalk within thirty feet of my own door jumping upon me on his knees, and striking me in the face until driven off by my wife and Mrs English, her sister of Yamhill

"Up to the time of the attack, and for six weeks previous thereto, I had been under daily medical treatment for sciatic rheumatism, extending into my legs, and neuralgia of the head, and when cowardly attacked I was totally unarmed, save that of a frail stick of eight ounces weight, and was simply helpless. I then and there made the request of Mr Frank "that he proceed at once in the interest of public morals and good society, to take from Tichenor the star and club he has disgraced and that I would thence forth make the effort to defend myself when again attacked by a ruffian—without a star

"Gentlemen I very much deprecate the fact that I am called upon to make a public statement personal to myself But when public necessity and utility require it of me as a duty to the citizens of this place or any other, I will not shrink from the demand of good citizens to respond

"Therefore I deem it but meet that you should know and the moral side of this community as well as strangers in the city should be informed, what acts and facts led up to so flagrant an abuse of authority by an officer sworn to keep the peace at all peril to himself in executing and enforcing the laws of this county

The more pertinent questions in this matter that seem to develop as I proceed, are these viz First—Who is this Abe Tichenor? Second—How did this man Abe Tichenor get into a position of public trust and responsibility? Third—Who is responsible for it? Fourth—Why is he retained?"

The records of the trial of Carrie Bradley can be referred to Yet this man who has shouted his own infamy in the ears of the people of this city while under the sanctity of an oath has the brazen faced effrontery to brace himself up behind the policeman's star he disgraces and claim that his character has been slandered and he has been libeled because [illegible] the police commissioners are asked through a public newspaper to inquire what business Abe Tichenor has prowling around houses of prostitution while the inmates are under arrest and in jail

Is this enough? Shall I say more? Will you longer hesitate to remove and place the ban of obloquy when the people so justly demand it? Respectfully yours, I SCOTT

THE T. J POTTER'S FIRST TRIP

She Leaves for the Coast This Afternoon—The Manzanita Off for Alaska

The elegant steamer the T J Potter makes her first trip of the season to the coast to day Since her arrival here from the Sound she has been tied up at the Ash street dock undergoing repairs and a general cleaning up She was not exactly the cleanest boat when she left the Sound, and the overhauling she now receives will again give her a very genteel appearance A force of men have been busily at work yesterday and the day before and this morning already quite a change is apparent About a hundred and fifty people have already applied for accommodations and it is expected that when she leaves her moorings at 1 o'clock this afternoon she will have on board a large and jolly crowd of pleasure seekers bound for the sea side

Joseph Merrick Still Enmeshed in the Toils of the Law

He Answered the Questions—Convicted Quickly—New Suits Commenced—Trial of the Slashers—Police Court—Brief Blotter.

Joseph Merrick who was convicted in the United States district court on the 13th of last month of obstructing the mails, and sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and be imprisoned for one month having served thirty days, yesterday took the pauper's oath and was discharged He did not enjoy liberty more than a second however, for as soon as he was discharged Jailer Hoxie who had brought him into court, arrested him on a warrant issued on an indictment found by the grand jury at Pendleton charging him with forgery Merrick was suspected of having attempted to wreck a train on the Short Line and it was charged that he went into Pendleton soon after and forged the names of business men there to checks securing a considerable sum of money from the Pendleton National bank If he is convicted of this forgery the chances are that about the time he has served out his sentence the charge of train wrecking will be sprung on him and he will begin to tire of the affair Sheriff Houser of Umatilla county, is in the city to take Merrick to Pendleton

Fred Biles, the young man who got himself into trouble by forging the name of his mother on an order for some goods, which he disposed of will have an examination in the police court next Monday There are two charges against him—one for forgery and the other for obtaining money under false pretenses His mother has arrived from Seattle and it is understood that she is making efforts to obtain his release

Andrew Cooley, who was arrested Thursday afternoon on suspicion of having robbed Daniel Rankin will have a hearing Monday afternoon. Rankin is held as a witness under bonds in the sum of $100

Owing to the fact that Judge Tanner will be absent from the city to day there will be no session of the police court this afternoon

HE ANSWERED THE QUESTIONS

Augus Schaffer one of the defendants in the suit of Tigkott & Brown vs Jonathan Tice et al was brought before Judge Shattuck yesterday to show cause why he has not satisfied the judgment of $190 obtained against him He refused to answer some questions propounded by the court, but Judge Shattuck quickly brought him to time by sending for the sheriff and threatening to incarcerate him When Deputy Sheriff Minto came into the court room Judge Shattuck gave Schaffer one more chance to answer and he gladly accepted it

TWO QUICK CONVICTIONS

Two criminals were convicted in short order in the criminal court yesterday They were C B Sibert charged with lewd cohabitation with Bertha Ware and David Cameron charged with robbing James Graham Both will be sentenced to the penitentiary to day Ah Toy was fined $250 for keeping a disreputable house A similar count against Ah Hoy was dismissed

WHY ARE THINGS THUS?

Streets, Bridges and Sidewalks Said To Be in Worse Condition Than Ever Before

"The crosswalks and sidewalks" said a well known business man yesterday "were never in worse condition than they are at present The sidewalks are decaying and full of holes the planks used as crosswalks in many places stick high into the air fit stumbling blocks for horses and pedestrians [illegible] are dilapidated and dangerous and unsightly wood piles and heaps of rubbish in all parts of the city add to the appearance of easy going carelessness and negligence Some visitors a few days since told me that they had heard that Portland had seen her best days and that the cities at the Sound were outrunning her in the race for supremacy, and judging from the appearance of our streets and sidewalks it is a wonder if they do not believe that such is the fact, and that Portland has lost her prestige

On some of our business streets old lumber and rubbish are piled up so that there is scarcely room for pedestrians to pass each other on the walks Nobody seems [illegible] to see it—just as though it were an inexorable fate and the public had to reconcile itself to it

I wonder what the street commissioner is occupied with that he has managed to overlook these small matters I wonder why the city is maintaining such an efficient police force Apparently there is nothing for them to do and I think that a riot or two would be in order giving them a summer vacation at the coast A much needed rest might work a change in them

Gentlemen—In answering your request for a statement as to the doings of the Westinghouse "Compound" Engine, as compared with our other engines, we would state that our plant consisted of an Atlas "Automatic" Engine, "11x16," and a Brush Dynamo, running 22 2000 C P. Arc Lights, and 90 16 C P Incandescent Lamps The coal consumed during a run of six hours averaged 1800 pounds of "Seattle Nut" We replaced said engine with a Westinghouse "Compound" Automatic, size "10 and 18x10," and consumed, on an average, 1000 pounds of the same kind of coal in the same time, doing the same work We are now running a Westinghouse Alternating Dynamo, carrying 275 16 C P Incandescent Lamps, and a Brush Dynamo, carrying 22 2000-C P Arc Lights Our average coal consumption per run of six hours is 1270 pounds "Seattle Nut"

Yours Truly,
